Dear Viewers,

Today is it nearly impossible to turn on the television without a commercial for a new great reality television show. As teenager girls we are drawn to this genre of television. We love every spin-off of "The Bachelor" including Bret Michael's "Rock of Love" and "Joe Millionaire." We thrive to be chefs after an episode of "Top Chef" or an up and coming designer from "Project Runway." We find ourselves tuning into MTV for the latest episode of "Real World" with the cute new cast member or Lauren's new gossip on "The Hills."

Introducing your 2008 Editors... Rachel Styers, Macy Hughart, Peyton Curley, Meredith Power, Claire Henry, Meg Zager, Claire Ballew and Hannah Koonce

Harpeth Hall 2008

Bowling for Soup said it best: "Bruce Springsteen, Madonna/ Way before Nirvana/There was U2 and Blondie/And music still on MTV," but does anyone really remember the days of music on MTV? The reality of it is that music is no longer the basis of MTV; it is reality television. These days MTV is dominated with reality from the "Road Rules" to "My Super Sweet Sixteen." So is the name "Music Television" really valid? We decided that Milestones Television was a better fit. Each section represents a different reality television show. So tune in and enjoy this season of Milestones Television...

Middle School Dedication

Betsy Malone

Mrs. Margaret "Betsy" Malone came to Harpeth Hall in 1972 to work as a science teacher. Mrs. Malone's love for science made both her upper and middle school students strive to learn more and appreciate science on a new level. Mrs. Malone was appointed as the Director of the Middle School in 1991. She is a dedicated teacher, friend, and mother. Mrs. Malone has put her heart and soul into this school, and after 22 years of service her presence will be missed dearly next year. We are so thrilled to present the Middle School dedication for the 2007-2008 school year to Mrs. Betsy Malone.

Upper School Dedication

Ophelia Paine

Mrs. Ophelia Paine is a Harpeth Hall alumna, and she returned to Harpeth Hall as a dedicated French teacher in 1998 before working as a college counselor the past few years. She has helped many girls during the stressful college search and celebrates the many acceptance letters received from top universities. Mrs. Paine is a compassionate woman who cares deeply for this school. She is also a devoted mother, wife, daughter, sister and friend. Thank you, Mrs. Paine; you will be greatly missed by the Harpeth Hall community.

Anna Dabney Armistead

To my family: Thank you so much for the past eighteen years. I don't know what I would've done without all of the laughter and love from you guys. I could not have asked for a better support system!

To my friends: Thanks for all of the memories and laughter.

Campbell Webb Baker

Thank you to my parents, my friends, my grandparents, teachers, taylor, my church, and everybody else who was there for me throughout the years.

"Some people need dozens of friends to say, 'hey look at me, I'm popular!' But not me, I'm very picky. I need three, maybe two. When you meet that someone special you just know. Because a real relationship can't be forced. It should just come about effortlessly." -The Office

Elizabeth Wright Barcus

To Mom, Dad, and Pat- Thank you for supporting me through everything and being the best role models anyone could ask for. I appreciate everything you have done for me more than you know.

To Kevin and Susan- You guys are crazy but I love you alot. We've had some weird but awesome memories that I wouldn't trade for anything - let's make a bunch more.

To My Friends- I love you all more than I can find the words to say and have had the most amazing time with you. You guys mean the world to me and I can't imagine my life without you. Raise your hand if...

I love you all and will miss you so much next year!

Elizabeth Hart Belk

To my family: I can't thank you enough for everything you have done for me throughout my life. Thank you for your continuous support and love. I can't imagine living without you and I will miss you more than words can say! I love you.
To my amazing girls: We have had so much fun together. I know we will always be best friends, and I love you so much!

Katherine Ashley Bell

Mom: Thank you for everything you have done for me. I don't think I would have survived without you. You have always been there for me; I will be forever grateful to you. You are the one that gets me through each day. I love you so much and I always will. Tim: Thank you for all of your jokes and imitations! My life would be so much less exciting and fun without you. To all my friends: Thank you for getting me through these four years. I know I have been less than perfect, but you have always been there for me. Especially to Laugh and Shar, I will never forget you! Thanks to everyone for a wonderful past four years!

Kathleen Cox Best

To my family, thank you for all the love and support you have given me over the years. I couldn't have done it without you. To my friends, thanks for all the times you've been there for me, and for all the fun times we have had together. These past four years have been amazing. I am going to miss you all so much next year!

Gloria Bond Beveridge

To the girls – I love you all and could not have asked for better friends to walk with in high school. For all the car rides, techno, chants, and train pictures...I'll miss you.

Mom and Dad..thanks for 18 years of encouragement, kindness, and always being proud of me. Bets – you amaze me with your independence & constant positive spirit. Stock-You're my best friend & I have missed you TONS this year. Hen – (Chenny) You are too cool for words Hen. I have loved hanging out with you this year. Thanks for being a great brother, and keep it cool in highschool.

Rae Ellen Vetters Bichell

Thanks, you guys, for:
Too many pets, chocolate smears, "primordial sludge" insults, weird birthday presents, cool houses, singing non-stop, mega-wedgies, clearing the table, "borrowing" clothes, drool, art, Ethiopian/Turkish chicken, wallpaper, neat freak desensitization, France, monkey children, coloring on my term paper, trading chores, teaching me to drive, offering to whack my tailbone back into place, the evil eye, superstitions, insult deficiency, "telepathy," sharing chapstick, watching Wallace and Gromit, office supplies, thinking I got kidnapped when really I was just sitting in my room, funky cheese, etc.
Love,
Rae Ellen

Kathryn Beth Binkley

I'd like to first thank God who has blessed me with loving family and friends and a life full of endless opportunities.
Mom and Dad: Thank you for your constant love and support. Thank you for teaching me how to dream, to love, and to live. You have raised me in such a fun and loving home, and I could never thank you enough.
Krissie: You are my rock and my foundation that I have leaned on all my life. Thank you for your advice, your love and your irreplaceable friendship.
My friends and teammates: Thank you for loving me unconditionally. You have challenged me and encouraged me all throughout high school. I will miss you all!

Brogan Blackwood Bonner

To my mom and dad,
Thanks for being there for me throughout everything.
I love you!
To my friends,
Congrats! We have made it! I will miss you guys!
To Andrew,
I love you so much! Thanks for always putting a smile on my face!

Erica Kay Boozer

To all of my friends: Thank you so much for always being here for me and for all of the great memories we've had! I will miss you! To the basketball team: Thanks for being my second family! Remember that you must expect greatness to achieve greatness. As Julianne would say, "Ball above All," Good luck next year!

Momma and Daddy, thank you for everything you've done for me to have the endless opportunities I have. I know I am truly blessed to have you as my parents, and I don't know what I'm going to do next year without both of you! I love you!! And Jessi, be good! You're the only one left, and I know I'm going to miss having you around. You are my inspiration and you always know how to make me smile! Good luck in middle school!! You can do anything you put your mind to and I know you're going to do great things! You are special and don't let anyone ever tell you different. I love you so much and I can't wait to watch you grow up!

Mary Julia Bressman

I want to thank my wonderful family for the constant support they have given me throughout the years. Mom and Dad, thanks for always being there for me– your constant support and encouragement has gotten me through tough times. No matter what the obstacle, I felt I could surmount it with you behind me. I love y'all! To my amazing sisters, I am the luckiest girl in the world to have two such amazing role models. Rachel, even though the distance between us is hundreds of miles, you have always been there to encourage and support me. You understand me, inside and out, and I know that you are always just a phone call away. Paula, you are so gifted and thoughtful. You're musicality never ceases to amaze me, and I am going to miss you so much next year. To Grandma, you were always the friendly face greeting me every afternoon and even when you could no longer come and watch my performances I knew you were their supporting me in spirit. I love you and miss you.

Devon Kaila Bridgwaters

To my family, thank you for always supporting me, taking care of me, and providing me with a remarkable life.To my teachers, thank you for never giving up on me, being incredible mentors, and giving me the education and the life skills that will lead me to success. To the Class of 2008, thanks for making the past four years a blast. We have shared so many priceless moments together, and you all have made Harpeth Hall the most fun experience that I could have ever ask for. I love you all!

~Devon~

Erin Malone Brooks

To my friends- you amazing ladies have all played such an incredible role in my life these past eight years. I have so many amusing memories from this time that I will never forget. The thought of not having you all with me next year to start my new beginning makes me so sad, but I know that everyone is just a call away. I love you girls so much!

To the fam- I can't even find the words to describe how incredible each one of you is. You guys have always kept me smiling and fully entertained at all times. I don't know what I would do without you all in my life. You are so much more than a parent or a sibling to me. You're my best friends and I love you.

Sydney Elizabeth Cannon

"Yes, believers can accomplish many things because the dead are benevolently inclined towards the living. On the other hand, nothing can be taken for granted because what the living desire will require great effort."

-Cristine Garcia

Lisa Lorraine Carson

To My Best Friends: I love all of ya'll more than you can image, and I will never forget boutique, Jojo Pish, butternuts, XC moments, Mrs. Ward's room, Sexi Juice, mock trial nights, or any of the amazing times we had together.

To Will: Thank you for always loving me and making me laugh.

To Mom, Dad, and Kate: Thanks for putting up with me. I will love you guys forever!!

Allison Rose Carver

To Mom and Dad- Thank you for loving and supporting me throughout my life. I'll miss being with you all the time, but I know that you have prepared me so well for everything I will face next year.
To Phoebe and Lilly- Thank you for being such great sisters. Enjoy the rest of high school, especially riding to school together, and come visit me a lot!
To my wonderful friends- Thank you for all of the memories and support. I'm sad we're going to be separated next year, but I know we'll all stay in touch. I love you all!!

Kathleen Anne Catherall

LIFE is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets, so LOVE the people who treat you right, forget about the ones that don't, and BELIEVE that everything happens for a reason.
If you get a chance, take it.
If it changes your life, let it.
Nobody said that it'd be easy.
They just promised it would be worth it.
A (Good Friend) helps you when you fall,
A [Best Friend] laughs and trips you again.
Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass... its about learning to dance in the rain.
I've learned that goodbyes will always hurt, pictures will never replace having been there, memories good or bad will bring tears, and words can never replace those feelings.
Live.Laugh.Love.
Life brings tears, smiles, and memories. The tears dry, the smiles fade, but the memories last forever.

Clair Lynn Christofersen

High school has been amazing! Thanks to Mom, Dad, and Charlie for your unconditional love and for putting up with me at home. Thanks to all of my incredible friends for making my time at Harpeth Hall worthwhile; an experience of a lifetime. Thanks to everyone on my Volleyball, Basketball, and Softball teams for letting sports be such a huge part of my life. I couldn't have asked for more!

Rachel Ann Cochran

Thank you to my friends, family, classmates and teachers. You have for been an infinite source of love, encouragement, and knowledge throughout high school. You are my inspiration and have given me everything necessary to succeed.

Elizabeth Mary Counihan

I would like to thank my parents for supplying me with the capacity to grow, learn, and explore. Roger and Julian, thank you for your endless brotherly advice. Thanks to my friends for the best times. I could never have grown to who I am without all of you. I love you all and will miss you next year! Â

Margaret Peyton Curley

To my parents, there aren't words to describe my love and appreciation for you both. I couldn't ask for better parents. Mom- I can't wait to be your best friend. You've shown me who I want to be. Dad- I'll always be your little girl. Thanks for always understanding, no matter how crazy I'm being. I know there's nothing you wouldn't do for me. Buck- Thanks for always being there for me. You're the perfect big brother and best friend! I'm so proud to be your sister. Lisa- You know a friendship is perfect when the only thing you can possibly fight about is a card game. My best memories have been with you. Don't ever change, you're irreplaceable! I love you forever! To ,"The Lunch Table"-You girls are perfect. I couldn't imagine better friends. You've gotten me through everything. I'll miss yall like crazy next year, but can't wait for stories! I love yall!

Heather Allison Derrick

Thank you Mom, Dad, Christopher, Timoune, and Clemet.
I love you all very much and I know I couldn't have done this without each of you, especially you, Timoune. You wont get to see me in my white dress, but who hasn't seen a white dress before? Love you all.
"I like to think of Jesus wearing a tuxedo T-shirt, so you know he's formal, but he's here to party."

Grace Condrey Douglas

Wait. It's really over? And now I only have 100 words to acknowledge the best four years of my life? Great. Where to begin? Mom and Dad, you were right. There – it's in writing. I can't take it back. Davey, you're the most honorable person I know and I love you. Table - I don't know how I'll make friends in a cafeteria next year. To all my friends, who pulled me through the long days when I simply couldn't go on, I wouldn't be sitting here right now if it weren't for you.

"Mr. Fennyman, allow me to explain about the theatre business. The natural condition is one of insurmountable obstacles on the road to imminent disaster. And strangely enough, we do nothing. It all turns out well. It's a mystery..."

Amanda Jade Garcia

Thank you to everyone for supporting me these past four years!
To my mom: thank you so much for everything you've done. Thanks for always being there for me! You're amazing and I love you so much!
To my friends: I love y'all so much! Thank you for the laughs and the memories.

Madeline Lily Garrett

I cannot believe 18 years have already past. To my family, thank you for all the love and support you have given me throughout my life. You have helped guide me through all the ups and downs life has to offer and taught me to love and live a fulfilling life. To my friends- thank y'all for always keeping a smile on my face through both good and bad times. Y'all are all wonderful and I will always cherish the memories we have made throughout these years. I will miss y'all so much and I will never forget the times we spent together.

Alison Catherine Geraghty

I just wanted to say thank you to everyone who has been there for me for the past 4 years, I will never forget the times we have spent together!
To my parents, thank you for always believing in me, I truly have no idea who or where I would be without you, and I love you more than words can express.
Brian and Steven- you're the best brothers a girl could wish for, I look up to you guys so much, and you ARE going to come visit me!
My friends- I love you guys so much. Thanks for being there for me and all of the great times we've had, it's been a long trip but we made it! Stay weird, I love you for it! Wicha!
Swan- you're an amazing guy and my best friend.
I love you all so much.

Heba Riaz Gill

Since I first entered high school, my life has taken me to places I never expected. I entered a world filled with competition and tried to make myself prominent among my fellow classmates. I unconsciously made the most amazing friendships in the quest. The people I competed with are those who I shared my happy, sad, and occasional frustrated moments with as I tried to make my way through high school. These girls have given me the support I need to succeed. I learned that to achieve any success, it's not about your ambitions or your determination, its about the support of the people you love behind you. To Ashley Norman, Lauren Quinn, Alex McLure, Molly Robert, Rachel Styers, you have taught me to succeed and for that I can never repay you.

Lauren Kremer Gill

To my parents: Where would I be without family dinners, vacations to Arizona, and memorable family videos...I love you both so much.
To Suzie and Trey: Hang in there- High school is fun. I know that you will keep Mom and Dad in line. I love you guys!
To Adam and Nat: I'll never forget the life lessons that I have learned from you. Parker: I love you- You're growing so fast.
Girls: Em and Camps, can you believe how little we were in first grade? Mb, Kathleen, Cat, Claire, Em Mann: I cannot imagine not having the lunch bunch or your shoulders to lean on. I miss ya'll already!
Guys: Jay Jay and Clay $: you guys are my brothers. Brandon: we know each other so well and I absolutely love it. We have had so much fun together. Rob, Taylor, Chase, Johnny, the Bens, and Bibb: you guys are my buds. Thanks for everything. I love ya'll.

Alexandra Rebecca Guillen

Thank you Mom, Dad, all of my friends, and all of my teachers for being supportive all 8 years! I love each and every one of you and will never forget my experiences at Harpeth Hall.

Paige Elizabeth Heinze

Mom & Dad-thanks for always being there and supporting me in everything I do. I love you so much! Taylor-enjoy your high school years and remember they go by way too fast. I love you and don't forget I'm never more than a phone call away! To my friends-I can't believe we finally made it! Through the laughter and the tears, we've made some pretty great memories along the way and I will always love yall!

Claire Susanne Henry

Throughout my four years at this marvelous school, I have learned many things, experienced life changing moments, and made long lasting memories. I could not have done this without the immense support given to me. Thank you to my parents, because they love and support me no matter what. Thank you to my sister, and best friend, Abby, for looking up to me and standing beside me always. Thank you to my teachers for guiding and putting up with me, especially Mr. Myrick, the unofficial leader of our "lunch bunch". Thank you to my friends: Campbell, my #1 and second sister; Marybeth, my bathroom buddy; Lauren, for making me laugh; Kathleen, for making driving fun; Daniel, for being my long lost brother and first MBA friend; and Ben, for listening to me when I talk and caring about me. Everyone I encountered on this journey through high school has been important to me, and glad as I am that it is over, I will always look back and be able to remember the amazing things that happened while I was at Harpeth Hall.

Emily Lanaux Henry

Mom and Dad- I love you so much and I am so sad that I will be leaving you two next year. Mom, you are such a compassionate and unselfish servant of God. Dad, you are so goofy, loving, and intelligent. You two have inherited much of Mimi's wisdom and spirit.
Will- I love you little bro. You are such an intelligent, deep, and loving individual. I am going to miss you making me laugh, giving me good advice, and listening to my problems.
My friends- We have had some fun times together and I know high school hasn't been easy, but each of us has grown in our own ways. I will not forget you girls.
Richard- God has shown me so much through you. Words cannot say how much I love and am grateful for you.
To my savior- This has been an awesome year. You have pushed me, held me, molded me, and loved me unconditionally. You have caused me to grow so much this year.

Lisa Gwyn Howard

I love my mom.
I love my dad.
I love my brother.
I love Margaret Peyton Curley.
I love my friends.

Mary Catherine Hughart

To my family: mom and dad, thank you for encouraging me to do my best and never letting me settle for anything but that. Sara, I know we don't always see eye to eye, but I couldn't ask for a better sister. John, thanks for being someone I can laugh with. Good luck in high school to both of you; time flies so don't forget to slow down so you don't miss it! Thank you so much to all four of you; you've always supported me and never given up on me. To my friends: I can't imagine being without a group of people I have solely counted on for years. You all have been with me in highs and lows, laughter and tears, lives and deaths, and everything in between. But I'm looking forward to the week be will spend together in the summer for years to come. "May the wind always be on your back and the sun upon your face and may the winds of destiny carry you aloft to dance with the stars." –Johnny Depp

Nicola Elisabeth Hughes Hallett

Thank you to everyone who has helped me through the past four years.
To my parents, thank you for all the support and encouragement you have given me and for putting up with all my whining over the years.
To my friends, thank you for all the great times we have had. Thanks for always being there for me and making me laugh no matter what. I love you guys and I am going to miss you all so much!

Emma Cashin Hunt

Had I known how fast high school flies, I would have taken more time to thank everyone along the way. So now I have my chance! Here goes! Thanks to my family for keeping me strong day in and day out, especially my amazing brother Wiley: Eres un hermano y amigo increíble! Just don't take over my room too soon after I leave. Thanks to my amazing friends who are always there to laugh, cry, or just be crazy with. I will miss you all so much next year! A special thank you to all my dance teachers, who inspired my passion (or obsession) for dance. A shout out to my senior dancers: I love all of you, and you are all beautiful dancers and amazing friends. I'll remember and cherish every "adventure" we had! Thanks to every teacher who ever believed in me, even when I was close to giving up. Above all, I want to thank God for everything He has blessed me with.

Mehrin Jawaid

In the small time frame of the past four years and in the swiftness of the years before, I have learned and grown so much. Thanks to my parents and family who have always been there for me supporting me, guiding me and encouraging me. Thanks to my friends and all the people I have encountered along the way who have positively influenced me and enlightened me. You have all been part of the bits and pieces that have shaped me! Love, Mehrin

Mary Theresa Killian

To my classmates- I hope you know that you never cease to amaze me. You girls are always there to make me smile and for that, I love you dearly.
To my family- Mom and Dad, I would never have made it without you. My pillars of strength, you will always be my heroes. Tresea, I appreciate every little thing that you do for me. Thank you for staying with me through everything, both good and bad. Annie, Team Killian will never die, Ya-Ya forever! Patrick, you always know how to make me laugh. You are such an amazing guy, and I know you will succeed in whatever you put your mind to. Bridget, you are my delightful surprise every day. Don't lose your colorful spirit because I adore it.
To my NAC girls- Thank you for the beautiful memories and the constant motivation. I love each of you more than you know. Maddie and Sam, my best friends, we have been through everything together. You two mean the world to me.

Hannah Elizabeth Koonce

I would like to acknowledge first and foremost my parents, without them I would have never had the opportunity to attend such a wonderful school. Mom, or should I say Elena, I will miss the horrible yet hysterical jokes you always seem to come up with on a whim. Dad, I would like to thank you for being my rock and always being there for a little push when I need one. I would like to thank the rest of my family for always being able to put a smile on my face and making me laugh till I cry. Next I would like to thank the girls that have always been there for me. My friends are the ones that have made my high school experience one of the best times in my life thus far. We cried together, laughed together, and are always able to make a normal situation extremely weird. I would like to thank the teachers that have challenged me and always gave me positive reinforcement and Harpeth Hall for creating an environment that made it easy for me to grow as a person. Thanks to everyone, I've have a great time!

Tobi Kirstan Lee

I would like to thank God for providing me with everything I have ever needed in my life thus far. Mom, Dad, and Tim: thank you for putting up with me for the past 18 years! I truly appreciate all your support, encouragement, guidance, and love. You are all the greatest role models a girl could ever hope to have. To my friends: you are awesome! Thanks for being there for me and making me smile. Mates of '08: you all are a phenomenal group of girls. I know I will miss seeing everyone in the halls and all the great times we had. Finally, thanks to all my teachers and everyone at Harpeth Hall for inspiring me and guiding me through these four years. I couldn't have done it without you.

To my family: I love you guys so much! I have no idea what I'll do without you guys next year! I'll miss coming home to Mom after school. I'll miss Dad's jokes and his positive attitude. And Caroline--I'm going to miss our nighttime chats. You three are my rock. I'm going to miss you so much!

To my friends: You all have been my world for the past eight years at HH. I don't know what I would've done without each of you! We've had so many good times together. I'll always remember our nights hanging out in AR's pool house, sexi nites, Wednesday mornings at B&Co, theme parties, and I will never forget our random chants and ongoing jokes. Most of all, I've loved just hanging out with y'all, whether it's one of our deep conversations or a silly chant that Lisa has made up. I'm going to miss y'all next year! I won't know what to do without you! Love y'all!

To Mom and Dad: Thanks for being there for me through thick and thin. I won't be able to ever thank you enough. I love you both. To Ann Randolph: Despite the fact you are my little sister, I look up to you more than you realize. Thanks for keeping my head on straight. Thanks for your dry humor and having my back at all times. You are the best. It will be hard to call a place home without you in it. I love you. To My Friends: I can't imagine how these past 8 years would have been without you, or, who I would be without you all. More than my friends, you are my extended family. I wouldn't trade a single moment with you girls for anything. I can't imagine life without our themed parties, going out to dinner, late night talks, sexi juice, football games, night's at AR's house, raise you hand if moments, hanging out in Wendy's parking lots, train pictures, farm parties, dances or anything else. You are my best friends and I will never forget you (it would be impossible anyway). I love you guys!

Stephanie Jane McKinnis

To my wonderful parents - thank you so much for all of your support during my time at Harpeth Hall!
To all of my teachers - I can't thank all of you enough for being the best teachers I could ever ask for. You all are so passionate about your subjects, and it really rubs off on your students.
To all of my amazing friends - I really appreciate everyone being so accepting of me when I was the new girl here. I'm never going to forget all of our fun times! Thank you to everyone for making my time at HH the best it could ever be and I'll miss you all!!

Mary Alexandrea McLure

First, I would like to say thank you to my parents; you have supported me in everything I do. I love you and thanks for always putting up with me! Next, I would like to say thank you to my sisters who were there when I first moved to Nashville and always kept me laughing. You two have always been there for me, and I know that I can always count on you. I would like to thank all my teachers for pushing me to be my best and helping me achieve my goals. Lastly, (but certainly not least) I would like to thank my friends! Ya'll have made this experience one of the best of my life. We have hugged, stressed, cried, and laughed together. I'm so glad that I moved here and met all of you; I know that we will stay in touch, and ya'll will always be close to my heart!

Meryl Hill McVicker

Thanks so much to my parents and my friends who helped me so much during these past four years in high school. Mom, DD, Andrew, Morgan, Allison, Devon, Kate, and Stevie, you have really made me the person that I am today. Looking back at my high school years there are memories that I will never forget: Allison's running raptor, big head and little arms, Kate as a possum, Terry, no no, lunch conversations, Andrew's dramatic chipmunk, to catch a predator, Jim Cooper, How to make an atomic bomb, Georgetown Hospital, Foggy Bottom, KW for my 16th birthday, and Allison's awkward moments. Mom and Dad, thank you for always caring for me. Dad, I'll always be your little girl. Mom, we will always be able to talk about anything. And Andrew, we've been through it all, and I've loved spending every second of it with you.

Morgan Lee McVicker

To my friends: You have made my high school experience great, and I will never forget any of you. When we go off to college next year I know we will stay close.
To my family: Thanks for putting up with me through all of my years. You have helped me through high school and I am so sad to be leaving in the fall.
To Mike: You have been right by my side through almost half of high school, not only as my boyfriend, but as my best friend also. I have had so many great memories with you that I will always cherish. I will never forget you and I am looking forward to college, wherever we end up.
Memories: Lunch time talks, RENO 911 (tear bear), Meryl's raptor/ Allison impression, all of Kate's Terry impressions, G free with Meryl and Kate, Kate's birthday at the park, going to Kroger with Mike and Luke, football games, cheerleading with all of my friends, Sundays with Mike, Washington, and all of my favorite memories from these four years.

Anne Breeland McWhirter

To Mom and Dad, thank you for everything! Thanks to Russell, Terrell and Hays, thanks for not only being great siblings but great friends. Thanks for all the times you've made me laugh.. and cry–its made me the person I am today. To all my friends, you mean the world to me. Thank you Austin for your endless support and smiles. Most importantly, thank you God, for all my many blessings.

Marybeth Shelburne Meador

To my family: Thanks for all of your love and support! Mom and Dad, you have made many sacrifices for me and I appreciate all that you have done for me and continue to do. Thanks for encouraging me and always being there to talk to. I love you both very much!! To my friends: Thanks for the amazing memories and for helping me get through those stressful days. I love the Lunch Bunch and those countless hours we spent in Mr. Myrick's room. I love hanging out with everyone on the weekends and I don't know what I will do without you all! I can't believe our time is almost over, but I'll always remember how much fun we had together!! To the Mates of '08! : Thanks for such a fun class, good luck to everyone next year! You all are an extremely talented group of girls and I know you will all go far in life! To everyone at Harpeth Hall: Thanks for making my eight years at Harpeth Hall the best experience thus far in my life. I can't think of any other place I would rather have spent middle school and high school!

Margaret Sumner Morgan

I want to thank God, without Him I would not have had such a blessed high school experience. My family, Mama, Daddy, Carver, and Wallace; thank you for supporting me no matter what, for being my #1 fans through it all and encouraging me through the tough times. My friends, God blessed me with such great friends and I thank Him for that. A lot of who I am today is because of you. The memories will stay with me forever and I am going to miss you all more than I can imagine next year. I love you.

Carolyn Elizabeth Murdock

Mom and Dad: I can't find the words to express how grateful I am for all you have given me. With out your unconditional love and support, I never would have gotten to where I am today, and it's going to be hard next year with out it.
John: Sorry you can't come here.
Friends: I love you all more than you know, and I am excited to see all of the great things I know you will accomplish in the years to come.
Lunch Table: It's strange to imagine my midday meal with out you.
Harpeth Hall: Thanks for everything.

Ann Ralls Niewold

Mom and Dad, Donna and Dick, Granny and Grand-Daddy, Gramps, Alma and Greatmama, The Goodalls and the Longmires: Thank you for your support and encouragement throughout the years. I could not be where I am today without you all.

My girls: We have grown up together. I don't just consider y'all friends; y'all are a part of my family. Thank you for always being there for me. Y'all are each so special and mean more to me than you will ever know. We have made lasting memories, and I will never forget you.

Love, Ann Ralls

Mary Lu Noah

Thank you Mom for your continuous support. It is your push that has helped me to achieve.
Thank you Dad for being a thoughtful listener. I know that I can always come to you for the best advice.
Margaret and Meredith- Thanks for all the love you have shown me, I will miss you.
Lisa-You have coached me for the past five years and have helped shape me into the woman I am today.
To all the wonderful friends I have made at Harpeth Hall- Thank you for making Junior and Senior year so special. Thanks for all the laughter, late night chats, and trips to Sonic. I love you all. Be sure to visit!

Ashley Nicol Norman

Mom and Dad- Thanks for always being there for me and putting up with my mood swings throughout all of my life. I love you both! I will miss you next year! Ryan, Christopher, Bailey and Clarke- Ryan, I will miss being at school with you next year. You have been with me for most of my years here. Christopher, I will miss you and your craziness that kept me laughing. Bailey and Clarke, I will miss you both. Bailey, have a great middle school experience. Clarke, have a great time in elementary school.
My friends- Thanks for being there through thick and thin. To my girls who have been with me since 5th grade, we have been through it all! To my friends that I have gotten along the way thanks for putting up with my silliness! Thanks for all of those crazy memories. I will miss you all next year!

Bethea Patterson

To my friends and family, thank you for always loving and supporting me. You made the past four years unforgettable. I am going to miss you all so much next year. I love you!

Lauren Alexandria Petway

My 8 years here have definitely been "CRAZY"! My girls that have been here since 5th, WE FINALLY DID IT! To my family: Thank you for supporting and putting up with me, drama and all!!! Kristen and Morgan, we're the real "trio", I will definitely miss you two the most! I LOVE YOU ALL, <3 Lauren!

Frances Anne Phipps

Thank you Mom and Dad for supporting me through the years; and thank you Hayley and Lauren for being the best sisters and also my best friends, I love yall! Thanks to all my friends, yall are amazing and the past four years would not have been as memorable without you. I'm going to miss each of you so much, but I know we are going to keep in touch and visit each other often, love you!

Sarah Lindsay Potter

To Mom and Dad, for showing me how and asking me why.
To Grandma B., for taking care of us.
To Carson, don't stop...

First of all, I would like to thank God, who has given me the strength to endure the challenges I've had to overcome throughout high school. To my mom and dad, I could not have made it throughout the past four years without your unconditional love and support. Thank you for making sacrifices to give me a great education, instilling in me strong morals and values, and always reminding me of what is truly important in life. I will never be able to repay you for the things you have given me, and I love you both so much. Peter and Nick, thank you for being such great older brothers. You've both been great role models for me, and I look up to y'all so much.

Caroline Keenon Prince

To my family: thanks for your love and patience, for the sacrifices you have made in order to provide me with everything. To my friends: I love each of you so dearly, and will always look back fondly on the years spent in your company. I wish all of you the best. I can only hope to infuence someone's life as positively as you all have influenced mine. Love Always, Caroline

Stephanie Jacqueline Putnam

I want to thank my family for always being there and supporting me when I needed you all the most. Thank you to my friends for having faith in me and for all of your advice that has helped me throughout high school and years to come.
"Laugh when you can, apologize when you should, and let go of what you can't change. Love deeply and forgive quickly. Take chances, give everything, and have no regrets. Life is too short to be unhappy. You have to take the good with the bad, smile when you're sad, love what you got, and remember what you had. Always forgive, but never forget. Lauren Scott Quinn

The past four years at Harpeth Hall have seemed to fly by. I still find it hard to believe that I am finally a senior. I could not have made it to where I am today if not for the help of my friends and family. Harpeth Hall has not been easy for me, but I will never regret coming here for high school. Thank you to my friends, family, teachers, and other faculty members who have made my high school years the best time of my life.

To Mom, Dad, Caroline, and the rest of my family: thanks for always being there for me as I've grown up.
To my friends: I love you all so much and have had so much fun with you over the years.
To my bible study girls: have fun next year and always have some m&ms in my memory!

Allison Elizabeth Rappuhn

To Mom, Dad, and Andrew – Thank you for everything. Thanks for making me the person I am today, loving me unconditionally, and always watching out for me. No matter what changes in my life, I know that you will always be there for me. I love you more than I can say!

To all my friends – Thank you for holding me together. I can count on you whenever I need anything. I'll miss you laughing when I trip/run into things, us laughing at Meryl and Morgan's "funny jokes", hearing Rae Ellen order the most unusual food on the menu, and all of our lunch conversations. I'll always remember you, and I wish we had four more years of high school to spend together. I can't wait to visit yall next year and talk on the phone all the time!

Mae Redha

Mom, Dad, Danny, and Nial: Thank you for all the support you have given me throughout my years at Harpeth Hall. Thank you for all the help and motivation you all have given me, I could have not done it without you. These four years have been amazing, and you all helped me succeed in life. I love you all so much!

Thanks to my family who has put up with me for all these years, my friends who made me laugh so hard I cried when I really, really needed it, and to my teachers who believed I was capable of more than I ever really thought I was.

Stephanie Gwen Rothenberg

To Mom, Dad, and Bryce

Thank you for always being there for me whenever I need you.

I wouldn't be the person I am today with out all of your love and support.

You all are the best family I could ever ask for and I love you with all my heart.

Logan Adler Rothschild

Mom, Dad, D'Ette, Amarrah, Addy-
I love all of you more than words can say. Thank you for OA, for all of my excursions, for surgeries, for being there for me, for snuggling with me at night (and in the morning), for crying and for laughing. Life, especially high school, would not have been the same without you all, and good or bad, I'm glad we got through it together. Thank you times infinity plus sixteen!

Courtney Brianne Smith

To my mom and sister Cydney, thank you for supporting me throughout my years at Harpeth Hall. You will never know how much you both mean to me. Great appreciation goes to the rest of my family and my friends for motivating me to do well. Thanks, I love you all very much!

Elizabeth Blake Stadler

I can honestly say that I will never forget how amazing these past eight years have been. I wouldn't have made it this far without the support of my friends and family. Next year, leaving will be the hardest thing I have ever done. I want to thank my friends, I love you all, and I will miss you everyday. I also want to thank Sloan, these years have been so special to me and that is because of you. And finally my parents, I love you so much and thank you for believing in me.

To Mom, Dad, Caroline & Jackson: Thank you for all your support in everything the past 18 years! Your guidance and influence has really prepared me for the real world. I Love you!
To My Friends: I don't know what I'm going to do without y'all next year! Y'all have been with me through thick and thin and I'm truly going to miss our fun times together. Love you all!

Rachel Dean Styers

Most importantly, I would like to thank my family. It has been incredible living so close to my aunt, cousin, and grandparents. You all have been the greatest part of my life. I can't even describe how much I love you all. Mom, you are such a great friend to me. I am so thankful for everything that you have done for me. I would also like to thank my friends. You have been there for me through everything, and I know that we will always remain close. I would also like to thank my church. FPC has been a huge part of my life, and I have found some of my best friends there. I am so thankful that I could be a part of it. I know that everyone has an incredible future lying ahead of them. Although I am sad to see everyone leave, I am excited for what is to come. I love you all!

Madeleine Louise Teren

I want to say thank you to my friends, my family and Harpeth Hall for making me who I am today. Without all of you, I would not be the person I have become. Friends–especially the Lunch Table–thanks for always making me smile and laugh. Mom and Dad thanks for keeping life interesting at home, and for all of your support. Gus, thanks for always being hilarious and being on my side :). Harpeth Hall, thank you so much for the past 8 years. I couldn't imagine a better place for me to have spent my middle and high school years. I love you all!

Carolyn Cate Tidwell

Much thanks to my family, friends and teachers. Mom- your constant support and unrelenting encouragement has kept me both sane and motivated. Dad- your humor brightens my days and I treasure the wisdom you have imparted to me. Warner and Crom- thank you for laughter, hugs, and smiles. Teammates-I have cherished every hour spent in Morrison and on the field. Friends-you have all touched my heart; thanks for being there through thick and thin. Teachers, coaches, and mentors- your help and advice has guided me through high school. Thank you all; your influence has shaped me into the person I am today.

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. -Phil 4:13

Ruth Elizabeth Trammell

To my family- Thank you so much for all the support you have given me in good times and bad, and I love you all very much.

To my friends- I have had such a blast with you these past 4/6 years, and I will miss you like crazy!

Lindsay Katherine Turner

Thank you Mom and Dad, Chris and John for supporting me through everything. I love you all and will miss you next year.
Love, Lindsay

Megan Charlton Turney

Mom & Dad- Thanks for always putting up with me and supporting me in everything, I know I wouldn't be where I am without all your help. I love y'all and I'll miss you next year!
Matt, thanks for helping me whenever I needed it and always providing entertainment at home, I love you!
Will, You're the best little brother and I'm going to miss you so much next year! Have fun in high school and come visit me!
To my friends- We have so many fun memories together and I can't imagine living without you all next year. I love all y'all more than you'll ever know and I'm going to miss every one of you so much, but I know we'll keep in touch!

Courtney Lauren Vick

Mom, Dad, Jamey, Granny, Papa, Rick, and Missy Moo—I want to thank each of you for helping me throughout my time at Harpeth Hall. I love you all and could not have been blessed with a better family. Also, thank you to my friends. I would not have enjoyed my journey from seventh grade through twelfth grade without you all. Thanks to the Student Council girls, basketball team, track and field team, golf team, Real World girls, YIG girls, Japan Winterim 2007 girls, my teachers, my coaches, and my classmates. Its been a blast and I do not know what I will do without you all next year! To the administration: I enjoyed working with you.

Elizabeth James Wick Ward

Thank you to my parents who have always been there for me and struggled to give me the best in life. Also thanks to my brothers, sister, and two wonderful siblings-in-law who have set an example for me, shared their experiences with me, and have been there for me constantly. To my teachers and coaches who have put up with my numerous questions; each of you has taught me how to strive for my goals. To my friends, without them I would not be half the person I am today. Lastly, but most importantly, I thank God, because without my faith I could never have made it this far.

Sarah McCall Weeks

I acknowledge that I am brash, reckless, harsh, and untameable.
I acknowledge that I test my friends more than I test my enemies.
I acknowledge those who I test, without them I would not be the free and untameable person I am today.
I acknowledge my family who taught me more than I wanted.
I acknowledge that everyone has been kind to me.
I acknowledge, you, the people who read my acknowledgement.

Samantha Nicole Williams

My time at Harpeth Hall has been amazing!! I have so many people to thank for helping me to get to where I am. First, thanks to Mom, Dad and Nick for being my support at home. Thanks to all my NAC girls (Kellyn, GraceAnne, Maddie, Mary and Kate), you all have been great and I'm going to miss going to Starbagel after morning practice. To the Harpeth Hall Swim Team, you all are a great group of girls and being on the team has been a true honor. To the Real World Committee, I LOVE THIS GROUP. Our Brown Bag Lunches and other activities have allowed me to learn so much about other cultures and diversity. Keep up the good work and I'm going to miss this fun club. Thanks to all of my teachers and the administration. You all have been so supportive in every aspect of my life at Harpeth Hall. Finally, thank you to my classmates. You all are my best friends and I'm going to miss you all so much next year. Its been a great ride and I wish you all the best of luck in years to come.

Thank you to my parents who have always supported me through thick and thin. Thank you for providing for me and guiding me throughout life, I love you both. Maggie, I love you and wish you luck throughout your high school years. I hope you know that I am always here for you. To Rush, sweetie you're my best friend and I will always love you. Thank you for being a constant in my life throughout high school. To my friends, thank you all for being genuine and accepting of me no matter what. Thank you to my teachers who have provided me with the education I will take with me through life. I hope to take the memories from High School with me throughout college and the rest of my future.

Lauren Elizabeth Zielske

To my family, thank you so much for supporting me and letting me grow through out the years. I have always tried to be equal to the confidence you have in me. I love you so much, and will miss you more than I can say once I leave to begin my journey at college. I am immensely grateful to my teachers over the past eight years at Harpeth Hall, for they have made me love to learn. To my friends, we have had so much fun over the years! Thank you so much for being there and understanding. You are all so special; I can't wait to see what you do in the future. Know that you are amazing and truly appreciated; I'm going to miss you all so much! Thanks to the whole senior class as well; I can't believe we made it! I wish you all the best.

MIDDLE SCHOOL AND UPPER SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCILS

Both Middle School and Upper School Student Councils were extremely active this year. The Upper School Council met every Tuesday during lunch and discussed issues that they would like fixed as well as talked about how current activities could be improved upon. They also organized new activities and discussed how events they had planned could go better in years to come. A few events they organized were the Halloween Dance, Winter Formal, Powder Puff, the "surprise" Dodecs visit, popsicles on the lawn, several skits, 4 booths at the MBA carnival, Student of the Month, Teacher Appreciation Week, Faculty vs. Seniors dodgeball game, Student Forums, and candy for freshman at Drug Day. We also met with MBA's Student Council at MBA. When asked to reflect on the year, student council president Courtney Vick says, "The girls, as a whole, on Student Council were the most responsible and invested girls I have seen in a long time. I will miss them a lot next year."

Middle school student council girls were just as involved. This was the second year of the chair system, which replaced the traditional president, vice president, etc. They held activites like the middle school tallent show and a car wash during parent/teacher conferences. They also had a princess of the week where each class would nominate a classmate who was particularly caring or generous or selfless that week.

SPIRIT OF SERVICE

Below: The middle school Green Team, Anna LeBleu, Ashley Lanquist, Ellie Beahm, Brianna Bjordahl, Natalie May, Maddi D'Aquila and Margaret Lowe, chipped in this year by making paper recylcing boxes and weighing leftover food after lunch.

The entire Harpeth Hall community participates in some form of community service every year. Such projects have ranged from graffiti paints out, to feed the childern, to tutoring at KIPP Academy. With the wide range of projects, the club allows each girl to find her passion in serving Nashville. Clubs such as the knitting and fitness devote many hours to specific community services that associates with their club. Meredith Power, senior, shares her thoughts on this club. She says, "It is a great way to give back to the Nashville community and better our society as a whole." Recently, Spirit of Service has been featured on Channel 4 news, doing a service project for Second Harvest. This Cool Schools program captured girls sorting food and stuffing backbacks for the charity. Not only is Harpeth Hall focused on community service for the world around them, they are also concious of the environment in the world around them. The Green Teams were created this year to raise awareness in the Harpeth Hall community about the benefits of conserving and recycling.

Cum Laude members Grace Wright, Channing Garber, and Maddie Polk bask in the glory of being inducted into such an honorable society

AMBASSADORS, CUM LAUDE, AND HONOR COUNCIL

Members of these three clubs are either nominated by peers or chosen by the administration. Ambassador Society is made up of students from ninth to twelfth grade and they are chosen to be ambassadors to the school. Ambassadors are called upon throughout the year to give their time and show visitors what life is like at Harpeth Hall. The main responsibilities of being an ambassador are giving tours to potential students and parents, helping out the Alumnae Office at Souby for the annual Thank-A-Thon, and participating in the Open House and Reunion Weekend. The Cum Laude Society is an honor society that recognizes junior and senior girls for their academic accomplishments. Ten juniors and fifteen seniors are honored at the Cum Laude Society Assembly, where the girls enter wearing white dresses and one faculty member is the keynote speaker. The Honor Council is a club whose goal is to maintain honor, honesty, and integrity in the school. Students from the upper school are chosen to represent their classes. The very first assembly is an Honor Council assembly, when the new members are introduced and the president of the council gives a speech. At the end of the assembly, every girl in the school signs and pledges to uphold honor throughout the year.

HALLMARKS MILESTONES PENSTAFF AND LOGOS

What do Hallmarks, Milestones, Penstaff and Logos all have in common? They are all writing related. Each one of these clubs plays a large part in documenting everything that happens at Harpeth Hall. Hallmarks is responsible for compiling an amazing litterary magazine at the end of each school year. It includes poetry, short stories, and art. Anyone can submit work to be used in the literary magazine and this year, they even included a cd with music by Joe Croker and some of our very own Harpeth Hall girls. Milestones is responsible for the yearbook. A team of devoted editors and staff memebers work extremely hard each school year to put it together. It features everything from the Senior pages and baby adds to pages for the sports teams and all the clubs. Macy Hughart is the editor in chief and Katie Cowan is the club sponsor. Penstaff is a little bit different because they include the boys from Montgomery Bell Academy. The club gathers to write poetry and eat pizza during their meetings, sort of like a writers society. Carolyn Murdock is the club president and Adam Ross is the club sponsor. Logos is responsible for the quarterly school newspaper. Denise Croker is the club sponsor and Sarah Schutt is the president.

DEBATE, MOCK TRIAL, AND YIG

This year, the law branch of the upper school clubs was extremely busy. Debate club held a survey at the beginning of the year to see what topics students wanted to discuss. Then they held meetings where they talked about current issues and events. Speaking of debate and issues, Harpeth Hall put up an incredibly strong showing this year at Model UN. All the girls worked hard and were very impressive in their presentations and public speaking ability. Harpeth Hall tied with Memphis University School, the traditional Model UN powerhouse, on the number of resolutions passed in the General Assembly, roughly equivalent to "winning" at the conference, and also on the number of resolutions ranked in the top 25 (out of 200). One fifth of the top 25 bills were HH bills, and we had 9 bills in the top 50. Also, one delegate, Jasmine Miller, received an Outstanding Delegate Award.

For Youth Legislature, we had three girls run for office at the conference, two lawyers, two press corps members, a lobbyist, and a member of the Governors Cabinet, as well as 58 girls in the legislative components.

The last of the law clubs, Mock Trial, was been equally as busy. From November to February, the Mock Trial Green and Silver teams worked hard on a case about texting, underage drinking, driving, and weather conditions. This case was espically tricky and invovled long hours at the law firm, Baker Donnellson, and long hours in the courthouse practicing. At District Competition the honey bear lawyers brought out their A game and wowed the judges with thier objections and cross examinations, as well as witness testimony. The season concluded with naming two MVPs: Katie Drummons from the Silver Team and Lisa Carson from the Green Team.

SHAKESPEARE PLAYMAKERS STAGE CREW AND FILM CLUB

The clubs related to the theater this year are Shakespeare, Playmakers, Stage Crew and Film Club. The president of the Shakespeare club is Lindsay Turner and the sponsor is Scottie Girgus. Together they have come up with excititing ways to celebrate Shakespeare, including throwing a birthday party for him on the senior patio. Playmakers is responsible for making the stages of all of the Harpeth Hall productions look beautiful. Every girl involved in a Harpeth Hall prduction is part of the club. Grace Douglas is the president and Janette Fox Klocko is the club sponsor. Stage crew is another active club within the actual Harpeth Hall theater. They help with the technical parts of the productions from lights to sound effects. They also help out in assemblies or when ever they are needed. Sarah Weeks is president and DJ Ranta is the club sponsor. The film club shows a quarterly movie that is voted on by the members of the club. They meet in Dr. Jack's room and watch a wide variaty of movies. Two of the movies they showed this year were Goodby Lenin and the Breakfast Club. The president is Lauren Quinn and the sponsor is Dr. Jack Henderson.

Cooking club, knitting club, book club and art club were very busy this year. The Cooking Club was headed by Maddie Teren. The vice president was Erin Brooks and Noel Price served as the seceratary. Once a month this productive club visits The Ronald McDonald house to prepare dinner for the residents. There was a great turnout for the baking contests such as the Boo Bake Off and Valentine's Day Bake Off. The Cooking Club has fun and also makes time for community service. Most importantly they all share a love for cooking. Knitting Club had a great time making scarves and hats for The Salvation Army, and The Battered Women's Shelter. They went to Kipp Acadamy to teach the students to knit. They also knitted baby hats and booties for The General Hospital. The book club held a fantastic book drive this year, collecting books for KIPP Academy, Goodwill, and the Salvation Army daycare. Some of the books were bundled with knitting club scarves and hats, and all were appreciated. They read Water For Elephants, Into the Wild, and Tender is the Night. The Art Club was very enthusiastic about a variety of arts and crafts this year. A local makeup artist, Valorie Cole, visited the Art Club and performed a tutorial on how to apply makeup. All in all the clubs had a ball this year and really outdid themselves.

CHESS, MATH, FITNESS, AND ENVIRONMENTAL

This year, the Chess club has been diligently studying the rules of chess and testing their knowledge of this game by competing against each other. As they hone their skills and perfect tactics, they develop strong strategies for a winning game. However, their meetings are not always so cut throat; they relax and chow down on the delicious snacks they bring. Math club has been especially active this year, celebrating Pi Day (March 14) with a math competition and chariot race between the classes. They have also celebrated Valentines Day with sweet treats and bingo games. In their meetings, the members do everything from working on tricky math problems to learning how to make designs on their calculators. Fitness club has literally raced through the year, participating in many walks and runs, including Race for the Cure, Angelman Syndrome Walkathon, and the second annual Aids Walk. The Angelman Walkathon was started last year by student Rae Ellen Bichell in honor of her little brother. The walk is organized solely by students and last year raised thousands of dollars. The idea for the Aids Walk was developed by the Fitness Club and the first walk was successfully held last year. The goal of the walk is to raise awareness in the school community about the issue of AIDS in our world. The Environmental Club has a new goal this year: to go green!

Chess club members Angie Zambrano, Anna Bikales, Willa Fitzgerald, Blythe Kate, Bradley Moody, Lena Bichell, Fatima Azamtarrahian, Sara Peacock, Ellen Thomas, Ashley Hayden and Elizabeth McLemore show off their skills!

From diversity to taking preventative measures, the Harpeth Hall girls have been busy in the International Club, Real World, SADD, and Teenangels.

This year the Students Against Drunk Driving or SADD, have been busy at work trying to bring awareness to the Harpeth Hall campus through Awarness Week. During this week a car damaged in a drunk driving accident was placed on campus to show what could happen. Similarly, the Teenangels who try to inform students about cyber-bulling and preventative measures. Girls have worked extremely hard talking congregations and students at other schools about the dangers of the internet.

Each year Real World sponsers a Brown Bag lunch where they invite different speakers each month to talk about their experiences. This year speakers have ranged from The Lost Boys of Sudan to our own faculty members. For the first time this year they sponsored Diversity Week, where they did a fashion show and had several speakers. Likewise, the International Clubs goal is to teach students about different countries. They are doing by hosting different language tables during lunch. These clubs bring different perspectives to the Harpeth Hall campus.

MIDDLE SCHOOL CLUBS

Middle school students kept busy this year, not only doing their home work, but also participating in a variety of clubs. Mrs. Goodman gave dozens fifth and sixth graders a home in the Drama Club, which performed two plays this year, and the fifth through eighth grade Forensics team wowed judges across the city with their excellent story-telling, poetry, and duet acting, to name a few. In fact, they placed sixth in metro, which was a big accomplishment for a small team!

The Newspaper and Literary Magazine allowed students to show off their writing and drawing skills, while Book Clubs catered to students who just love to read.

No one could miss the Knitting Club as they invaded Mrs. Mabry's lobby after lunch. The fifth graders were especially enthusiastic participants and really helped the knitting club grow this year. The Green Team was new this year, just in time of our motto, "Go Green!" They helped raise awareness of how we can help protect the environment at school and at home.

The Science Olympiad team had an impressive year coming in first place in the Region. They triumphed over 11 other teams, including the boys at MBA, and went on to claim fourth place in the state tournament. Way to go!

The Varsity Bowling team traveled to Smyrna, TN to compete in the TSSAA Division II Girls State Bowling tournament, where they were slated to bowl against the top seed, St. Benedict (14 - 0). Coach Melissa Wert said about the event, "The atmosphere upon entering the facility was unlike any bowling experience we'd had as a team this season. The place was packed, with bowlers, teammates, family, coaches, and officials all vying for a good spot to watch their teams compete. We headed to lanes 29-32, where we staked a claim on space for our own cheering section. After several minutes of practice throws, the match began. Round 1 was tough on the Bears because the St. Benedict bowlers were on fire, winning all 6 games and the pin fall total. Round 2 was a more competitive round for the Bears, with three bowlers winning their games, scoring a total of 3 points for the team. St. Benedict proved too powerful once again, though, winning three games and the pin fall total for round 2. Round 3 was not to be forgotten either though with CeCe Christians pulling out her best score of the season, 147. The Bears were close in all 3 games. Although we exited the tournament after the first round, the Bears bowlers did our school proud".

In late September, the top three golfers on the Harpeth Hall Golf team competed among the best in regional's in Chattanooga. Those three golfers, Katie Drummonds, Mary Elizabeth Sorci, and Elizabeth McLemore teed off early at the private Black Creek Club in between the beautiful areas of Lookout Mountain and the Signal Mountains. This was a very hard course, and it really challenged the girls' skills. Despite none of the girls getting a chance at state, their coach Moe Hill was extremely proud of his team. "Having tasted victory many times this season, I was grateful for their graciousness in defeat. This young Honeybear team has shown great character and promise, and I look forward to working with them again next season. Many thanks to these three, Hannah Claybrook, Tess Erlenborn, and seniors Courtney Vick and Alex McLure, who will be missed next year." With 6 wins (three of them being second place out of three teams), no losses, and no ties, the US Golf team really pulled through this year.

The middle school golf team also excelled this year. Marees Choppin, being the head coach, was also very proud of her team this year. "With two new golfers this season, the Bear Linksters overcame odds to help the team remain competitive at the Spencer Creek HVAC Tournament. Ranking third place as a team, I was so proud to watch Liza Southwick, Emily Apple and Alexis Hawkins (11th place individual) make a single-minded commitment to the game of golf, to Harpeth Hall, and to the development of their skills. Although greens and a sand trap may have gotten the best of Emily, she reached greens in regulation (no easy feat for any golfer), landing one chip shot inches from the hole. Likewise, Liza chipped from behind a creek to the number nine green. Alexis hit the fairway consistently, improving her 9 hole average at Spencer by 5-7 strokes. I highly commend these girls and the other seven middle school players for their 7 wins/5 losses season."

The MS JV volleyball team had a stunning end to the season with a win against BGA. Ashley Hall literally served the team to victory in the first game. She stepped up to serve at 14-12 and served straight through to 25 points! Final score: 25-12, 25-13. Go Bears!

The MS Varisty volleyball team played its best volleyball of the season in a tournament on Septermber 25. We beat FRA in an exciting match coming from behind to win in 3 games. With a short break we turned around to play the number one seed, DCA. Though the Bears fell short, they played DCA very tight match, 25-22 and 25-23. Katelyn Williams was fierce on the net with some spectacular block-sand hits . Hunter Magee rocked as middle hitter. Margaret Lowe played with determination and had some great saves and key serves. Anne Randolph McKenzie had some killer spikes. Karlyse Bailey and Katie Warne were dead on as setters. Katherine "Fergie" Ferguson and Cooper Powell played awesome defense. And, Delara Alviri aced a few and saved some more. This group of 9 has worked hard all season and played everyone close. Though we didn't win as many as we would have liked, their effort and hard work never faltered. We ended the season playing our best volleyball!

This year's Volleyball team had an amazing year with fifteen wins and only eight loses, and they made it to the State Tournament for the forth year in a row. In the Region Tournament they won against Knoxville Web and also Ensworth, but unfortunately they lost to Father Ryan. It was an achievement in itself to make it to the next level, Sub-State, and there they played their hardest but did lose to ECS. They finished eighth in the state and third in the region, which was awesome! Cate Tidwell, a senior member on the team, talks about her beloved team members, "This team was the most cohesive team in my four years at Harpeth Hall. Every player worked together because no one was a stand out. We had to work together to win and we worked together well because we loved being around each other and we had played together for so long." This team was very dedicated and this summer while everyone was at the pool in August they were hard at work getting ready for the upcoming season. With out a doubt the best game this year was the Harpeth Hall vs. Ensworth game. Both the stands were packed with green and orange and the players said they had to yell just to hear one another, because the crowd was going crazy. The Honey Bears did end up beating the Tigers, but it was exciting with close games.

Middle school cross country is one of those sports that's as much about teamwork as it is about each girl doing her individual best. The Honey Bears are great at supporting each other as they try to shave seconds off their own times. With 39 runners and 4 coaches, this large team was a quite a sight to see!
"They showed great maturity on September 27," said Coach Martelle, "with a strong second place finish in the 2007 HVAC championship meet! Brentwood Academy won the meet with 49 points followed closely by Harpeth Hall with 57 points and coming in a close third with 58 points was Ensworth. The officials had their work cut out for them, making sure the meet was scored correctly! The Bears, fielding what was certainly one of the youngest teams in the conference, showed they will certainly be a force to be reckoned with next year! Leading the young group of runners were 7th graders Emily Masten and Allie Polk finishing 6th and 7th respectively. Finishing closely behind them was 7th grader Sarah Hill in 12th place followed by 6th graders Deery Brooks in 14th place. Rounding out our top 5 runners was Katelyn McEvoy in 18th place. The Honey Bears showed a great deal of character by being the most enthusiastic group cheering on not only their fellow teammates but also their fellow competitors. Congratulations to the cross country team on a great season!"

The "Long Green Line" had a great year, with the junior varsity team placing first in the State meet, and the varsity placing fourth. One of their best runs was at Greenway Farm, the meet that qualified the six varsity teams to move on to the state tournament. This course was dubbed "the toughest region in the state in any sport, in any division," but that didn't stop the Long Green Line from running their best race of the year and placing third, close behind Ensworth and Brentwood Academy. Meanwhile, the JV team was named the Top Junior Varsity Cross Country Team in Tennessee with a 23-point victory over Brentwood Academy. Not only were the teams amazing as a whole, but there were also a large number of personal records. On the Greenway Farms course alone, senior Glory Beveridge knocked off 35 seconds from her best time of the year, and the "Freshman Flash," Kate Wiseman ran her best at 20 minutes, 25 seconds, to mention a few. But, unfortunately, the Long Green Line was left with thoughts of "What Might've Been" at the State meet, when St. Agnes School surprised everyone by taking first place, and placing five of their runners in the top fourteen. They were closely followed by Knoxville Webb, and Ensworth. Still, the Bears beat their rival; Brentwood Academy. Also, Bradley Moody, aka "Mighty Mite," earned a spot on the All-State Team with a time of 19 minutes, 53 seconds. Over all, the cross-country Bears ran well this season.

The middle school soccer teams had an excellent year. The A team won 8 games, lost 1, and tied one. They made it to the HVAC tournament and in round one had a major win against Ensworth. The A team dominated over Harding Academy, and Allie Morris scored within minutes of starting the game. They also won against BA, 2-0 in their final game of the season. During half time of this game, it was so nippy outside that the team had their meeting inside the HH bus to discuss their strategies. They kept the lead in the second half and won the game!

The B team also had impressive stats. They won 5 games and only lost 2. They won over FRA, 3-0; Chloe Mariea predicted the score before they started, and the goalies Alex Thornton and Rebecca Pirkle never let a ball cross the goal line. In their game against Nashville Christian, in spite of only practicing a week before the game, they still communicated well. Liza Southwick had an amazing goal that helped win the game. Middle school soccer teams had a great season this year and hopefully their talent will carry on to the upper school.

Soccer this year had a fun and eventful season. They had an exciting win against St. Cecilia and tied 2-2 against Ensworth, which was great. Mary Kathryn Alexander states, "It was a sad loss against Ensworth but I thought we played really well. I hope we get a chance to play them again." Grace Stumb and Rachel Wachs scored the two goals and everyone had an amazing game, because there were so many spirited fans in the stands. The team made it to Regions and there they won against JPII but unfortunately they barely lost to Brentwood Academy and Father Ryan. However, they did tie Brentwood Academy earlier on in the season on their senior night. This team had an unusual season because they lost both their head coaches; but at the end they ended up with a wonderful coach, Tiffany Watson. Also the team had to play and practice on different fields during the beginning of their season because Harpeth Hall's field was under construction getting a turf field. Blake Stadler said the fields they played on were very hot and had barely any shade during their summer practices; she even suffered from a heat stroke. This year the team traveled down to Chattanooga and tied against Baylor, and there they also played against GPS and Soddy Daisy. Anna Armistead, a senior, said her favorite memory of the season was traveling down to Chattanooga, because she had quality time to spend with her team mates. The Soccer team had a great season with many difficult games, but they tried their hardest and had fun!

The 5 & 6th grade both had excellent seasons this year. The 6th grade coach wrote a poem about their stellar season:

The season must end, as all great things do
It's hard to walk away without a tear or two.
Since Thanksgiving we've worked hard each day,
But never did I hear the girls complain.
I hope you all know what a commitment it is.
To play a sport and still get your work did. (sorry English teachers!)
The improvement was drastic, though it came with a cost,
In order to grow you must learn from a loss.
We battled BGA in the very last game,
We came within three with a quarter to play.
The hustle was intense, I had not seen that before.
The girls were fouling and even diving on the floor.
I was proud to be their coach all season long.
If anyone doubted their heart they'd be wrong.
My girls are the best, if you don't see it you're looney.
I wouldn't even trade them for a chance to meet George Clooney!

The fifth grade season was awesome too! One of their biggest games was against Oak Hill and was a huge upset. Less than one minute left in the overtime Jaclyn Choate sank a basket to put HH ahead by two points. The last minute of the game was fierce basketball at its best. Harpeth Hall held on for the win and the fans surged on to the court. Special defensive award to Obi Ananaba. Obi held a player that scored 14 points in our last meeting to zero points in the game. Final Score: 20 OH-18.

This year the MS Basketball teams consisted of three 7th and 8th grade groups: A, JV-A, and an all 7th grade team. About the A team Coach Ward said, "Eight teams made up the HVAC this year, and only two of them were able to end their basketball season on a win - one of those teams was Harpeth Hall. In front of packed stands at MBA, the Bears defeated University School of Nashville in what turned out to be a very, very close silver division championship contest. The Bears took control of the game from the beginning and led most of way, but the scrappy team from USN would just not go away causing multiple turnovers by the Bears. The Honeybears had answers though as their defense matched the Lady Tigers holding them to only 8 points in the third quarter and 8 points in the fourth quarter.

The game came down to a very intense play with about 7 seconds remaining - Tigers ball! If they score, they win! They only trailed by one point to the Bears and called timeout to set up a good look at the basket - and they got it - twice! A long range shot from the left wing did not connect, but their post secured the rebound as the time ticked...a second lay up from right side of basket - it doesn't go! Bears win! Bears win!" Clearly the bears had a successful season and hopefully their good luck this year will carry onto future seasons.

The Honey Bears started off their season strong after another trip to Phoenix, Arizona for the Nike Invitational Tournament. This team was encouraged from the start to have a successful and exciting season with six seniors, Glory Beveridge, Beth Binkley, Erica Boozer, Clair Chritofersen, Paige Heinze, and Courtney Vick leading them this year. The team traveled to numerous places including Memphis, Knoxville, and Chattanooga just to name a few. Even while the other Harpeth Hall students were enjoying a leisurely Thanksgiving Break, our Honey Bears were working hard at the Westview Holiday Classic tournament. This was a great team win and was not as easy one as they were playing against one of the best programs in the state. They went on to once again beat two of their main rivals, Brentwood Academy and Father Ryan, although they also were victorious against many other teams. They were extremely spirited as they once again competed in the Division II-AA Region Tournament. Many personal high scores were achieved this year along with many injuries, but that did not hold this team back from having an amazing season. This has once again been an unforgettable season and we are all looking forward to an exciting new start for next year's team! Congratulations to Beth Binkley, who will be playing for the Lady Tigers at Princeton University next year!

The Middle School Cheerleaders cheered loud and proud for the Middle School Basketball teams. It was a very busy season, but that did not stop their spirit from helping the Bears be the best. During the half time shows, they would get the crowd pumped up with their awesome dance moves. These eleven girls were the peppiest cheerleaders yet! The Bear also added so much fun to the games. She ran along the sidelines directing the wave and doing silly cartwheels. You could tell she was always having a great time! The pyramids and lifts the cheerleaders did were so incredible they got the whole crowd on their feet! Ellery Moore always looked adorable on the top of the pyramid and flying through the air.

The Upper School Pep Club did a great job this year supporting all of the sports and arts during the year. They held pep rallies to celebrate all of the fall, winter and spring activities and their achievements. We all loved watching Ms. Teaff wave the Harpeth Hall flag proudly for all to see! Cate Tidwell got the whole school on their feet teaching them new cheers for the upcoming basketball season. Stickers and pom-poms were distributed to everyone who came and got everyone really excited. The wacky relays during the Pep Rallies were so fun, and everyone had a great time! The dance competition was probably the best part. It was very exciting for everyone and got everyone really spirited. GO GREEN!

The Middle School Swimming team had a phenomenal season, with a great group of eighth graders leading the team. The group of 22 girls put every effort into swimming their races and cheering on their teammates! The most unexpected win was against USN when only 11 girls were competing, and they won by 3 points! The Bearacudas ended their season with a tremendous meet showing that Harpeth Hall continues to be a force in the swimming arena! During the championship meet, the girls fought for every point and ultimately placed fourth out of 30 other schools, which is really great for their fourth year as a team!

This is what Coach Polly Linden had to say about the 2007-2008 Swim and Dive Season. "The Tennessee State High School Swimming and Diving Championships; imagine the magnitude: 106 schools, 900 + athletes, 12 events. The Bearacudas qualified 17 of events for State this year, and having won 7 state championships in as many years, the expectations were high, the pressure was immense. When the psych sheet was released, it was clear that Baylor was favored to take the girls' crown, but the Bearacudas would not go down without a fight. Saturday, reality had set in. For our seniors, it was the last time they would swim for Harpeth Hall; the last day they would lead the Bearacuda cheer. As a team, we realized we would not be able to overthrow the big bad boarding school from Chattanooga; we would not be able to take the tally to eight straight titles. Embracing that last reality was the most important thing we did all weekend, for it enabled us to regain our focus, reset our goals, and come together as a team like never before, to fight for the trophy that 104 other teams would die for—TN State runner-up, girls team. Saturday morning saw more personal bests and the Bearacudas returned seven more to finals that night. Kellyn Angell, junior, earned that honor in the 100 free as did our 400 free relay team of Kellyn Angell, Sam Williams, Grace Anne Sanderson, and Maddie Garrett. Strong finishes in the first couple of events pushed us past Bearden in the points standing. That goal accomplished, we had one goal left in mind. It was the final event of the night, which was fitting, because it was the best race of the night. With the entire Bearacuda team standing behind them and countless fans, the 400 free relay team fought it out, not only for the record, but for the gold. Out-touching Webb by less than a second, they set a new State record of 3:30.23. What a perfect way to end the meet and the season. 106 schools, 900+ athletes, 12 events, and the Bearacudas were named TN State Swimming and Diving runner-up, girls division. I could not be more proud of their accomplishments, nor could they. So, should you see a Bearacuda, congratulate her, for there will be no apologies accepted. In a field of 106, there is no shame in second place."

The MS Lacrosse team had an amazing season this year. They had 7 wins, no losses and 3 ties, thanks to their coaches Megan Becker and Megan Berkes. When asked what their favorite memory of the season was, Karlyse Bailey and Marion Cox all said different things. Karlyse said that hers was beating harding in the last few seconds of the game while Marion said the 8th grade sleepover was her favorite. All the girls on the team though, concluded that beating Ensworth Middle was the best game of the season and that beating Harding was a close second. The girls also really enjoyed the bus rides. One of Rebecca Jacques' favorites was coming back from the DCA game when McCall sang "Bleeding Love" at the top of her lungs. With all those wins there were bound to be some hard practices. When asked about the hardest practice in her eyes, Karlyse Bailey responded, "we ran in circles for what seemed like a lifetime and then did the hills, squat jumps and turning the stick while having to keep our hands completely strait. Then we had to do pushups—we were all dead tired by the end of that day's practice." All and all though they girls had an amazing time and seemed to love their coaches. Keep up the good work girls!

Lacrosse started in early February with their eyes set on the state title. Led by Legare Vest, head coach, and assistant Lynn Proctor, they took each game as it came, and had a remarkable season. The bears started out with a game against USN, and came through with a tremendous win of 15-4. The team endured the harsh cold of Chicago for the Loyola Lacrosse classic where they had to shove snow off of the fields! The bears pulled off an incredible win against Brentwood High School for the last home game, and to celebrate the seniors! Junior-Varsity also won against Brentwood, and ended the season undefeated! Four of the bears were chosen for the Southeast Tournament teams, and traveled to Baltimore, MD for the tournament! Varsity Lacrosse defeated Hutchison for their fourth state title, and junior Junie Welsh scored a career-high of six goals. They had an amazing season this year ending with the Tennessee Girls Lacrosse Association state title! The lacrosse team claimed the state championship in 2004, 2005, and 2006, but came in second last year to Hutchison. Needless to say, they were thrilled to reclaim their winning title as the 2008 state champs! The Bears, plan on continuing the winning streak next year. Congratulations, Bears, on a great season.

Coaches Romary and Southwick have a lot to be proud of. This year the bears won the HVAC Championship! Coach Romary said, "Monday we waited. Anna LeBleu was able to play a match, which she won, and then we waited more. We waited until it rained. Due to the rain, Tuesday promised to be a long day. If our girls did well they would have three matches to play. And, they played well!! Anna faced a tough opponent in her second round but because of her win in the first round HH was tied with BA going into the finals. Margaret Lowe's back was killing her but she was determined to play and she did great! Litton gave it her all, like she always does, and at one point had to be helped out of the fence. But, nothing was going to stop Litton and Anna Gorney. These two are good! Liza Southwick only lost two games the whole tournament. Claire Johnson and Molly Claybrook worked as a team and were clearly the team to beat at second doubles. So, into the final matches HH and BA were tied. First, Liza won 8-1. Then, Litton and Anna won 8-0. Then, Margaret won 8-5. About this time, Molly and Claire started playing. It was after 7:00. Just before 8:00 it was decided they would play one more game and then we would call the match. HH was up 7-2. It was a close game but Molly and Claire pulled it out winning 8-2. HH beat BA 13-10!! Way to go Bears!!!" This concluded their season and they came out on top victorious!

Tennis had a great season this year, and welcomed a new coach Buffy Baker, who coached at Penn State University for eight years! Coach Baker was assisted by Armistead Wilson, and they led the tennis team to an awesome season of 7 wins and 4 loses. Rain, snow, sleet - none of these elements deterred the tennis team from training hard in the beginning of the season. The team won its opening match of the season, easily defeating The University School of Jackson 7-2. The Tennis Bears swept Father Ryan with a 7-2 win and won two exhibition matches as well. The bears was led by seniors Kathleen Catherall and Maggie Stephenson. Also, six of the Harpeth Hall bears competed in the regional tournament at GPS. In the singles categories Samantha Lewis and Meredith Lawrence represented the bears and in the doubles category Kelsea Best/Shaye Sullivan and Lexi Mossman/Kathleen Catherall represented the bears. Although they did not advance to state in individual competition, they did secure some important wins and had a great tournament experience. The following week they played in Memphis in team substate competition and lost to Hutchison. Overall the US Tennis team had a great year.

This year the Middle School Softball team did well. They placed fourth in the HVAC tournament and had a record of 3 wins and 9 losses. Ashley Hall, 8th grade pitcher, had a lot to say about her favorite sport. Her favorite memory was from the first game that the team had won, which was one of the first that they even even played. When asked, in her opinion, which game was the most intense she said the game against BGA. "We scored alot of runs, and then they scored alot of runs. It was 12-12. Everyone was trying their best and working their hardest on trying to hit and score. It was the last inning and we had 2 outs with someone on 3rd, a ball was hit, they scored and won in extra innings."

One of the hardest days in her mind was when it was really hot and no one had any energy to practice. Since they had a big game coming up, they had to work extra hard. Everytime there was a ball overthrown or not caught they would have to do 10 push-ups or sit-ups. She remembers counting 140 push-ups by the end of practice, but since no one wanted to do it again, "we only had to do a few in the following practices."

Her favorite bus ride was the one back from DCA. "The game was all the way out in Donelson, a 40 minute ride, so that means we had time to sing, tell jokes, and I remember playing a game with a couple people in the back of the bus."

Summing up the season she said, "We did okay in some games and some games we did really well, but no matter what we had fun. "

This year the bears had a couple games that should be recognized, the Ensworth game and the BA game. Coach Polly Linden had the following to say about the Ensworth Game. "After a delayed start to the Region tournament, the Honeybear softball team met the Ensworth Tigers in a first round match-up at BGA. Senior Heather Derrick decided early on that this was going to be her game. In the bottom of the first, Heather ripped a line shot up the middle, and tore around the bases, for an inside-the-park home run (her second of the season). It was at the bottom of the third that the Honeybears broke the game open. Batting though the entire order and then some, the Honeybears put together seven hits and plated seven, bringing the score to 8-0. It would be Derrick again in the fifth. With bases loaded and one out, Heather took the count to 3-2 before ripping a single up the middle and driving in two. Mercy rule ended the game in the fifth: HH 10, EHS 0." Although the bears defeated Ensworth they fell to JPII in second round and went to the loser's bracket in the double-elimination tournament. Another game where there was a big Harpeth Hall win was the game versus Brentwood Academy. Coach Linden said the following about the game. "The Bears faced the BA Eagles in the region tournament and needed a win to stay alive. Sophomore Caroline Kay struck out five. Sophomores Leslie Kimball and Caroline Kay led the offensive charge. Leslie went 3-for-3 with 2 runs and 1 RBI while Caroline went 2-for-3 with 1 run and 4 RBI." In the end though they finished fourth in region and did not qualify for sub-state as they were disqualified by BGA in the 3rd place game. They had an awesome season winning 9 games and losing 11 games with no ties.

This year the fifth and sixth grade track was coached by our own upper school PE teacher, Lori Graves, along with her sister, Amy Wilder. Lori Graves had the following to say about the season. "We had approximately 40 girls participating this spring, and we practiced at school with all the other HH track teams. It was an introductory season to learning the skills of track and field. It is the first time many girls have ever participated in any type of track and field. Our events in the field are high jump, long jump and shot put. Our events on the track are 50m, 100m, 200m, 400m, 600m,800m, 1600m and relays are 4 X100, 4 X 200, 4 x 400. We had 4 weekend meets where only individuals won events. No school comes a way a winner." So for the start up of the 5&6th grade track team this year it was sucessful. Not only did the girls learn the basics of the track and field, but they also learned what it was like to compete in those events."

It was a great spring filled with hard work, good exercise and great team work. Even with the blustery cold of winter hanging on, these fifth and sixth graders were all heart.

Above: Ellery Moore uses her whole body to bound over those hurdles!

The Middle School Track girls had an awesome season this year! When asked about their favorite memory, eighth graders Stori Nuri, Lucy Cohn-Still, and Tina Qian all had different answers. Stori said she had fun squirting people when it was really hot outside; Lucy said that it was meeting all the new people; and Tina said it was smoothies after practice with her friends. When asked which was the hardest practice, Stori said, "One intense training we did was called acceleratons, sometmes half a mile while other times a mile where you start out at the 150 mark. Then you would jog about 50 meters, stride another 50 then sprint another 50. Mr. Martelle had us give it our all and by the end it was very tiring." All three girls said that the most fun bus rides were out to the USN river campus and back. Stori also said that track is fun, but having her friends there with her made it that much more fun. All and all it sounded like the MS track team had an awesome time this year. One highlight for the team was eight grader Margaret McDowell placing first in the pole vault and setting a school record for middle school vaulters. The team placed fifth overall out of nine teams in the HVAC championship.

This year the US track team did really well! In the state they placed Fifth. They also placed highly in other big meets such as: Highland Games Champs, Nashville City Champs, and they were 3rd in regions! Some of the competitors who helped win this position were Courtney Vick, Morgan McVicker, and Brenna Newport. Our Student Council President Courtney Vick '08 won the State Discus Competition with a throw of 111'8" and sophomore Katherine Dresch finished 3rd. Katherine Dresch also finished 5th in the Shot Put with a throw of 32'10".On another note, Morgan McVicker ('08) was state runner-up in the pole vault clearing 10'6" and Emmy Weikert ('10) finished 4th at 9'6". Also, with the results from the other regions and it appeared that all four of relays qualified! It also appears that Brenna Newport qualified in the 3200 and Elle DelFavero in the 400. All and all the track team did very well for themselves this year. Go Bears!

Thoroughly Modern MILLIE

This year the Harpeth Hall Playmakers and the MBA Players put on a fantastic show of Thoroughly Modern Millie. The director of the show was our own Janette Fox Klocko. She, along with all of the cast and crew, worked many long hours to pull everything together. Their hard work showed through their talented singers and energetic dancers. Stephanie Rothenberg, who played Millie Dillmount, gave an outstanding performance along with the rest of the cast. A few weeks before the play opened, the cast and crew worked until late at night during the week and on weekends. Senior cast member Lindsay Turner said, "Working on Thoroughly Modern Millie was incredibly fun and eventful. We had a fantastic cast who worked hard and did a great job. I am extremely glad and proud that Millie was my last musical here. I loved every second of it and it was well worth giving up 1/3 of the summer for!" Although some of the girls fell a bit behind in their schoolwork, they all said it was worth it in the end and were sad when it was over.

Taming of the SHREW

Acclaimed Artistic Director of Nashville's Shakespeare in the Park, Denice Hicks, directed Harpeth Hall's 2007's fall show, William Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew."

Setting the Shakespearean comedy in the "groovy" 1970's, the show was sure to be a fun, memorable experience. Kate, also known as "the shrew," played by senior Carolyn Murdock, is a fiery, unamicable girl whose prospects of marriage seem dim. It is not until Petruchio, played by Chris Baldwin, comes into town to try and tame Kate into an obedient wife in order to obtain her large dowry.

During all of the drama, Kate's loveable and beautiful sister, Bianca, played by sophomore Margaret Burrus, is constantly chased by possible suitors but finally falls in love with Lucentio, the scholar in disguise (played by Morey Hill).

Filled with many other hilarious characters, fight scenes, identity confusions, surprise kisses, and go-go girls, "The Taming of the Shrew" was an outstanding success.

US FALL DANCE CONCERT

This past fall, the Harpeth Hall Dance Company celebrated "Old Boundaries....New Frontiers." Under the guidance of the wonderful seven seniors, the dance company truly outdid themselves. With a variation of dances ranging from modern and classical ballet to hip hop and musical theatre, the dance concert incorporated dancers of age eleven through eighteen, all doing what they love to do...DANCE! Act I included "Zip-A-Dee-Do-Dah,""Golden,"The Bear Necessities,"and "Stylin' Swag: We Got That Brand New Vibe," not to mention seven other memorable dances. The second act, which was equally as exciting as the first. It included dances such as "Ballet Concerto," "Fever," "Sibiziwe," and "Born to Hand Jive." Great job, dancers, techies, and faculty!

US & MS WINTER MUSIC CONCERTS

This year at the Winter Music Concert, the Harpeth Hall Chamber and Concert Choir dazzled the crowd with their lovely voices, the Harpeth Hall Orchestra played beautiful tunes, and the newest edition, the Harpeth Hall Rock Band, dubbed "Shredded Plaid," rocked out the audience.

The Choirs sang beautiful songs dating back to old Scotland and as current as David Childs. The Orchestra played classic pieces that resounded perfectly in the Gallery. "Shredded Plaid" rocked it with a few tunes, one of the best being Dolly Parton's "Jolene."

All musical performers were adorned in either black dresses or black shirts and skirts. The Chorus was directed by Nancy Turner, and both instrumental pieces were directed by Andrew Martelle. The Concert lasted a little under an hour, but the audience was begging for an encore!!

The performing choral groups were the 5/6th grade choir, the Advanced 5/6th grade choir, the 7/8th grade choir and our African Drum group.

This year's concert was unique because it was the first time the African Drumming group performed. They were a huge success, performing "Funky Moment" and "Calypso."

Soloists were Morgan Dentz, Molly McConnell, Skye Adamson, and Sarah Gresham Barr. Songs performed were "Music Alone Shall Live," "Over My Head," "Hasuka," "Children of the Rainbow," "All Night, All Day," "Dodi Li," "Homeward Bound," "Joy In My Heart."

"Everyone was a star!" said Mrs. Turner.

You're a Good Man CHARLIE BROWN

The Middle School musical, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," was a huge success. Everyone from the high school students, to the parents and faculty of Harpeth Hall enjoyed this fantastic musical. There were three actresses assigned to each part, therefore more girls would have an opportunity to participate. "I liked having three characters! It was nice because one person wasn't just the star or the co-star and you didnt have to memorize as much. It was also really fun seeing how each person who played the same character had different styles and attitudes on how they would portray their character," said AnneGray Thornburg. Maggie Griswold said "Most of the time it was crazy fun! It was really cool to have people who were playing the same part as you were, so you could go ask them questions or get advice on how they would say the line."

Some of the cast's favorite scenes were "Little Known Facts," "The Crabbiness Survey," Snoopy's "Supper Time" solo, "Queen Lucy Melodrama" and the final song when the entire cast was on stage and singing together.

There were also many memories created backstage as well as on stage in the spotlight. "I loved the rush of excitement when everyone was getting ready to start the show both nights. It was a lot of fun helping everyone with last minute hair, makeup, and tips on how to deliver lines" said Sarah Hill. One of Sheridan Haley's favorite backstage memories was "moments before we had to go on stage, I realized that the miniature piano was on the other side of the stage. So, my really great friend ran as fast as she good down the stairs and under the stage to get it for me, then ran all the way back in the nick of time. We were all such a great team; it was such a good experience."

Every cast member did an excellent job with their solos. When asked about the feelings she had when she first walked on stage to sing her solo, Lizzie Boston said "When I sang my solo song on opening night, there was just this thrilling feeling that just makes you want to just sing and act for the rest of your life. When you see those spotlights in your eyes, its like that's where you belong."

WHO'S LIFE IS IT ANYWAY?

This spring, our thespians perfomed the powerful drama, "Who's Life is it Anyway?" by Brian Clark. The play is set in 1978 in a hospital ward. The play illustrates the struggle one has when he or she is given, or not given the power to choose. Claire Harrison (Carolyn Murdock) is a quadriplegic and a sculptor who becomes permanently paralyzed from a car accident. She does not want to continue living in her current state. "It is all about the right one has to choose. It is really interesting because you are able to see all perspectives on the issue: the doctors', the attorneys', and, perhaps most importantly, Claire's," says Willa Fitzgerald, who played Margaret Hill.

"Who's Life is it Anyway?" leaves the audience without a clear answer. The final decision is not shown in the play.

"What is really unique about this play is that it does not take a stand. It lets us wonder. We don't know what Claire eventually chooses, but what is important to her is that she be allowed to choose," says Mrs. Klocko.

This play was meant to open discussions about many controversies that people face in their lives. Mrs. Klocko says, "It does not matter where you stand on these issues, but that they are out there and you can talk about them."

ART & PHOTO SHOW

The Art and Photo Show was a huge success this year. The show featured many great pieces by talented artists in the Art I, Art II and Art III classes, along with Photography I, Photography II and Media Arts. The art pieces ranged from charcoal, to oil pastel, to sketches, to acrylic paintings of still-lifes and self portraits. One of the Art III projects that intrigued viewers was one where students had to use a stick to draw with ink, rather than a more familiar ink pen. This forced students to reach outside their comfort zone and try something really different, and difficult! Another cool project was Ms. Curry's Art I class where her students drew flowers from life, then created beautiful paintings from their drawings, and finally carved exquisite relief tiles of those same flowers.

The photo students completed many difficult projects as well. They did hand colorings, large prints, infrared prints, Hockney collages and a pastel project. In Media Arts, each student portrayed themselves as someone different, for example, a Hindu goddess, Eve from the Garden of Eden and Snow White. They first took digital pictures in costume, then manipulated and enhanced them using Photoshop. Each completed piece of art was incredible! Congratulations to each art, photo and media arts student. The show was a huge success!

AP ART SHOW

"Art is a bonding experience like no other," says Macy Hugart, an AP Art student. "No one else but the people in your class understand the stress you are going through. We grew close by helping each other and encouraging each other through these hard times."

The hard work of the AP Art students was evident at their show this spring in the Marnie Sheridan Gallery. Each student must pick a theme, or concentration, that unifies the work for her AP portfolio. Such themes included "Internal Weather," "Fruits of the Spirit," and "New York New York." About her New York concentration, Frances Phipps said, "I loved my concentration because it was so much fun to paint something completely new. I love the city, New York, so last summer I went there and took great art pics."

In addition to bonding with their classmates and learning to focus on one theme throughout the year, a major part of AP Art is its beloved teacher, Mrs. Rosie Paschall. She has been leading young women to excellence in the visual arts for decades now. She is not merely a teacher, but also a friend. Macy Hughart says that Mrs. Paschall "cares so much about each of her students. I mean, what other teacher has your birthday in her personal planner then has you over for a dinner party at the end of the year?"

Congratulations on a successful year in Art boot camp!

SPRING DANCE CONCERT

The Harpeth Hall Spring Dance Concert raised the bar even higher this year. With the theme of "It's a Matter of STYLE," each dance was impressive. The dancers' technique and enthusiasm for their pieces lacked imperfections. Some of the audiences' favorite dances included "Ahoy, Matey!," "Bay Area Hip-Hop," and the incredible finale, "Born to Hand Jive." The Seniors did a fabulous job leading and setting examples for the underclassmen this year. The Senior class included Mary Julia Bressman, Emma Hunt, Julia Liang, Emily Manning, Lauren Petway, Caroline Prince, Mae Redha, Stephanie Rothenberg, Courtney Smith, and Lindsay Turner. The seniors performed in an exclusive dance called "Variations on an Unorigional Theme." Also, Lauren Petway and Courtney Smith had solo dances, "Find My Own," and "Unanswered." Stephanie Hamilton and the dancers, Middle Schoolers and Upper Schoolers, worked extremely hard during the second semester of their dance classes. Congratulations! All of your hard work paid off!

MS & US SPRING MUSIC CONCERTS

The Upper and Middle School Spring Music concerts were performed on back-to-back evenings this May. First was the middle school concert, which was held in the theater to accommodate the large number of students participating. The various singing groups, directed by Nancy Turner, included the 5th & 6th grade Choir, the Advanced 5th & 6th grade Choir and the Harpeth Hall Singers (7th & 8th graders). The instrumental groups, directed by Andrew Martelle, included the 5th & 6th grade Band, the 7th & 8th grade Band, the 5th & 6th grade Orchestra and the 7th & 8th grade Orchestra.

During the following evening, guests could see the progression of students as they mature from middle school musicians to high school masters in the upper school concert. There were beautiful vocal performances by the Concert Choir and the Chamber Choir, including soloists, Mary Julia Bressman, Lindsay Turner, Claire Henry, Marybeth Meador and Jasmine Miller. The Chamber Orchestra wowed the audience with their skills on the violin, viola and cello. It was especially fun to see the 7th & 8th grade Orchestra join them on "For the Star of County Down."

Last, but not least, was the impressive show performed by the Upper School Band. This rockin' group of students has paved the way as the first members of Harpeth Hall's rock band, started this year by Andrew Martelle. Students could be seen playing the drums, bass guitar, electric guitar, keyboard, and even singing.

Congratulations to all the talented musicians whose hard work and practice resulted in two excellent concerts. Bravo!

ONE NIGHT ONLY

This year, the Theater II class presented "The Eighth Annual Evening of One-Acts." This is a one-night oppertunity for the more advanced theater students to show how much they have learned in the theater department at Harpeth Hall. The class members read scripts and chose one-act plays that they would like to direct. They all worked together to cast their shows and were happy with the outcomes. The directors were Mary Hampton Elam ("The Unknown Part of the Ocean"), Elizabeth Floyd ("Check, Please"), Aline Dushimire ("Christmas Breaks"), Margaret Burrus ("Drugs Are Bad") and Claudia Crook ("The Rebirth of Beautiful").

The Directors truely enjoyed producing this show. It was a personal process, choosing the scripts, because each director chose one that they enjoyed or related to. Margaret Burrus described her play by saying, "When I first picked up the script, 'Drugs Are Bad,' I found myself laughing out loud within reading the first page. The hilarious twist on morals and comic banter between parents and child made me truely fall in love with this show....While the world of the play is unreal, it is easy for any teenager to relate with getting caught doing something 'bad.'"

ElizabethFloyd also related to her play because she said "To me, 'Check, Please,' is a metaphor for life because, really, isn't life just a series of blind dates? The Girl and the Guy in the play teach us how to live our lives. After each disastrous date, they go back out there and face another blind date with the same hope and anticipation. They never throw up their hands and give up. In the end, they find what they are looking for; just as we all do when we embrace life, pitfalls and all."

The directors were very pleased with their cast members. The class members' success was clear to Mrs. Klocko, themselves, and the Harpeth Hall community.

TRUE LIFE

I have the best costume

This year's Halloween was spooky. There were several creative costumes at the Halloween Dance. Some of the highlights were Mrs. Teaff's Harpeth Hall girl costume with her colleague, Morey Hill, dressed as his mother, Mrs. Hill. Attending the Halloween Dance were bugs, cowgirls, cows, party animals, and the occasional fruit. What a group! They jammed away to the DJ's spins such as Soulja Boy's "Crank Dat," "Sandstorm" by Buddy Koonce, and Michael Jackson's "Thriller." The fundraiser for Kipp Academy was a huge success. Two boxes of school supplies were collected at the dance. At school the following week, there were many tricks and treats on the day of Halloween. The International Club hosted the casual day by collecting loads of school supplies for Safe Passage. During break, the seniors were surprised with a treat on the senior patio. Whilst eating their treats, Tony Springman's trick interrupted the fun and games with his rendition of the Macarena. Overall the Halloween festivities were a creepy hit!

TRUE LIFE

I'm stuck on campus

Winterim is a great opportunity for all students, whether on or off campus. It is a memorable experience that allows all the girls to focus on subjects outside of the usual classroom environment.

This past Winterim was the thirty-fifth year in which students were given this great opportunity. Freshmen and sophomores stayed on campus and worked in classes that they were able to choose. A great thing about Winterim is that they girls not only get to choose what they want to take, but the teachers are able to go beyond their usual day-to-day subjects and teach something that has always interested them.

Some classes included Mad Hatter's Tea Party, Myth Busters, The Twenties, Women in Finance, and even a filmmaking class. All were subjects that would not normally be taught in the traditional classroom style. However, all classes leave the girls with a new understanding of both themselves and the world around them. The girls often leave with a new hobby or passion that influences them later on in their lives and careers. The 35th year of Winterim was a great success!

TRUE LIFE I'm an intern

This year for Winterim, the junior and senior classes interned and traveled all over the world. Destinations included Nashville, New York City, Washington, D.C., Colorado, Baltimore, Great Britain, Spain, Ecuador, and France.

The internships ranged from assisting doctors, to working in the Senate with Lamar Alexander and Bob Corker, to event planning. The girls had the chance to choose an area of study that interested them outside the classroom. Winterim is a great opportunity that allows students to explore future career options and broaden their horizons.

The Winterim trips involved academic learning and sightseeing, homestays, community service, and extra time to delve into the international cultures. The trips helped the girls to see the world from a new perspective and to absorb other cultures.

Overall, it was a successful Winterim off campus as the girls enjoyed this once in a lifetime opportunity.

TRUE LIFE

I have to find a date

It was a cool winter night, and the girls arrived in style with their dashing Prince Charmings. Some girls showed up in elegant floor length gowns, while others donned flirty cocktail dresses. It was a night to remember as each couple walked the red carpet and down the twinkle-lit staircase. While greeting friends in the gallery and introducing guests to Ms. Teaff, the live music poured into the spacious gallery. The band, 24/7, played our favorite tunes all night long. Songs included Earth, Wind, and Fire, Outkast, and everyone's personal favorite, Aretha Franklin. The night ended with Shop Boyz' upbeat classic "Party Like A Rockstar".

The freshmen class kicked the night off with the first ever Winter Formal dinner, held in our very own Visual Arts building. Not only was the food scrumptious, but the conversations were never lagging. Due to the freshmen's enthused reaction to the dinner, it is sure to be a lasting Harpeth Hall tradition.

The sophomores this year enjoyed being able to drive their dates to the dance. Maybe.

The juniors kicked back at this dance before having to plan a great prom.

The seniors owned the dance floor (and the stage) as they celebrated their last Winter Formal. Many memories were made at the dance.

The girls looked dazzling as they cut the rug with their dates. Ms. Teaff barely recognized the girls without their plaid skirts!

TRUE LIFE

I was born February 22, 1732

The seventh grade class celebrated George Washington's 125th birthday on February 21. This traditional celebration dates back to 1920 when it was held at Ward-Belmont. The soldiers, sailors, and minuets each participated in the long standing event. Each group of girls learned a dance and dressed the part as if they lived in 1732. George and Martha Washington were played by eighth graders, Anna Russell Thornton and Meg Stark. This event started with the introduction of three dozen guests. Famous guests included Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, two very prominent figures of the era dressed in authentic costumes. The audience marveled at the sailors' quick and nimble footwork as well as tumbling. Speeches were interspersed throughout the celebration given by a French marquee as well as other prominent guests. The soldiers, led by Alexandra Thornton the Captain of the Guard, entertained the audience with their rhythmic marches and fantastic formations. Everyone enjoyed the minuet dancers and whispering about which dress had been theirs when they were in the celebration. This year's George Washington Celebration was a success and gave the students a chance to bring history into their lives and reflect on America's independence and principles.

TRUE LIFE

I'm boy crazy

The seventh and eighth grade girls have enjoyed their new friendships with boys from MBA. They had several successful mixers this year, all with great attendance.

The eighth grade girls hosted the boys for a mixer. They danced the night away under the sparkling lights of the cafeteria with their crushes. Their favorite songs to dance to included both the Cha-Cha Slide and the Electric Slide. Both were able to get everyone out on the dance floor. Even the chaperones were participating and getting their "groove" on. After some outrageous dancing, several were seen helping themselves to the refreshments table.

The seventh-graders had an exciting first mixer: bowling. The venue for the mixer was Strike and Spare, well known for always providing a fun time. The girls showed off their bowling skills while competing against the boys. They had no chance whatsoever. Let's just say there were many strikes at this mixer... All in all, the mixer was the perfect beginning to the weekend.

The girls have really enjoyed meeting some MBA boys this year, and they look forward to attending more mixers in the future!

TRUE LIFE

I want to be a football star

The day started off with fun and spirit as the senior cheerleaders hosted a fun and festive tailgate for the sophomores and seniors. Filled with hot dogs, pink cookies, and tons of hairspray, Powder Puff was off to a rockin' beginning. The air was tense as the juniors processed up the Harpeth Hall driveway to the field; however, the senior spirit was not close to being diminished as the cheerleaders formed a tunnel for the senior players to take the field. The game was a constant battle of the defenses, and at halftime the score remained 0-0. During halftime the fans and cheerleaders enjoyed free pizza, pop corn, and pink cotton candy in spirit of the seniors. Thanks to the Parent's Association, there was even a moon bounce for all to enjoy! After pep talks in the locker rooms, the players took the field again. It was a close battle, but the juniors pulled it out with one touchdown and a speedy clock. A memorable play was when senior Erica Boozer collided head-on-head with junior Paige Cahill making a noise that all the crowd could hear...what a hit! Despite the seniors' tough loss, their spirits were not shattered due to their memories of their big win last year. The theme of the spirited seniors seemed to be "we started this tradition." In great sportsmanship, the seniors formed a tunnel for the juniors to run through after the game. Powder Puff 2008 was a great showing of sportsmanship between the two rival grades, and overall the day was fun.

The Father-Daughter and Special Friends Dance was filled with fun memories and some new dance moves aboard the General Jackson. Dads and their daughters arrived in suits and stunning sundresses. The night included girls ranging from the eighth graders in middle school to the senior mates of '08. They boarded the ship and began the night socializing beneath the setting sun on the Cumberland River. Many took pictures to capture the festivities of the night. Voices floated over the air as the ship's horn blew to kick off the night. Taking their seats with friends, the girls stuffed their faces with delectable food. Excited seniors were delighted to have a new menu of pot roast to replace the previous years of chicken. The excitement filled the air as everyone surrounded the dance floor. No one could wait to get and up show off some signature dance moves with their guests! The lively band got the girls to jump onto the dance floor with their fathers and special guests. Some of the highlighted songs were "Play That Funky Music" and "Shout." Both of which got everyone out of their seats. Everyone was ecstatic to have a guest appearance from the "Blues Brothers." Accompanied by blow-up guitars and dark Ray Bans, five senior dads took the stage and sang their hearts out. As customary initiation into the high school, eighth graders and their fathers were invited to this dance. While the eighth grade girls enjoyed their first dance, the seniors and their fathers cherished their last. It was a bittersweet ending for them as the General Jackson docked.

TRUE LIFE

I've got middle school talent

The Middle School Talent Show was a hit this year with many performances by very talented middle schoolers. The performances ranged from famous musical acts to comedic acts written by the students themselves. Some girls chose to entertain the audience by singing their favorite song or playing a musical instrument, such as the piano, harp and guitar. The costumes of the girls in the show were innovative, bright, and stunning.

When asked about the highlights of the talent show, Sarah Allen Ray stated, "Lilly Carver sang "Our Song" by Taylor Swift, and everybody in the audience enjoyed it. Rebekah Webster sang "Only Hope" from a Walk to Remember and it was fabulous. Sarah Hill sang "Love Song," and the audience equally enjoyed her as well."

The fifth graders were especially brave this year, as the largest number of performers came from the Class of 2015. The hard work of all the girls in preparation for the talent show paid off, and the show beautifully exemplified the talent embodied in a wonderful group of girls. Their enthusiasm and excitement was revealed in each of their performances and made the show an overall success. The talent displayed in this year's talent show wowed the audience and will be difficult to beat next year.

Sphinxes, palm trees, fountains, and camels filled the Marnie Sheridan Gallery and Morrison Gym to create the atmosphere of Night on the Nile, the 2008 prom theme. The seniors started off the night in an unrecognizable cafeteria with a delicious meal fit for Egyptian goddesses. The divine desserts were a huge hit, as were the M&M-filled pyramid gift boxes for the seniors and their dates. The seniors made their way across a tiki torch lit pathway which set the mood instantly as they approached the red carpet entrance. Seniors nervously awaited presentation; however, comic relief was provided by DJ Ranta and Ms. Klocko while they demonstrated the proper way to be presented. Mr. Springman studied fervently in the back of the auditorium as the girls and their dates lined up. His hard work paid off, and he was a great MC for the night. Despite their fears, the seniors came out of presentation unscathed and ready to cut the rug with their dates. Live music was provided by a band called The Exotics who got everyone on their feet. The seniors were very pleased with the juniors' decorations and hard work. After seven months of dedication, the juniors pulled off a beautiful prom that will forever be remembered. All the girls looked stunning in their gorgeous gowns after hours of preparation and primping. This year's sophomore class has big shoes to fill as they start planning the 2009 prom.

TRUE LIFE

I've got school spirit

Field Day was a huge success this year. P.E. teacher extraordinaire, Martha Ross, planned one fun event after the other to make sure everyone went home happy, tired and wet! Perhaps the happiest of all were the winners of the 2008 Field Day, the Angkors! It was not without a fight, however, as the Aristons left the Quiz bowl with first place in their grip, and Triad came on strong in the end by winning the club song/cheer.

Students carried on the tradition of our four clubs, Angkor, Triad, Ariston and Eccowasin by showing incredible team spirit. The amount of blue, red, yellow and green that climbed out of each car that day was amazing. From wigs to wings, the brightly colored outfits were so creative.

After a challenging Quiz Bowl competition in the morning, everyone headed out to the field for some wacky relays. The most fun to watch was the flipper and bouncy ball relay, as each girl struggled to pick up speed with these hysterically awkward modes of transportation. The water relays were a welcomed opportunity to cool off from the summer sun, and everyone looked forward to the Icee station.

To end the afternoon of fun and games, everyone flexed their muscles in a grueling series of tug-o-war games. The grand finally was a four-way rope that allowed all the teams to compete at the same time. With one round per grade level, each team came out with one victory: 5th grade Aristons, 6th grade Eccowasins, 7th grade Angkors, and 8th grade Triads. Way to go!

TRUE LIFE

I'm almost out of here

The rainy day of the Almost Alumnae Luncheon did not dampen the fun of the mothers and their daughters. As the moms arrived to meet their daughters under the big white tent behind Souby, a torrential downpour began. The beautiful flowers, elegant china, and festive green table cloths were left lonely in the tent as the mothers and their daughters rushed to the auditorium. Kind waiters ran through the storm to deliver everyone their delicious lunches. This task would have been much easier in previous years, but this year, with the theme of "going green," all of the lunches were on china plates. All the girls and their moms were able to adjust and enjoy their lunches as if they had never moved from the tent.

A beautiful presentation was given by Anne Beyersdorfer, the granddaughter of Margaret Gooch Duffy, class of 1932. She spoke eloquently about stories that her grandmother had once shared with her.

Kathleen Catherall's mom and Harpeth Hall alumna, Mrs. Whitaker, spoke next. She reassured everyone of the opportunities that she was given through her friends and networks from over the course of her years at Harpeth Hall.

The final speaker of the day was senior class president, Glory Beveridge. Her speech was filled with all of the things that she loves, is thankful for, and what she will miss about her mom. Glory kept her speech lighthearted with some humor and reflections on her time at Harpeth Hall.

The ceremony was closed with a beautiful song, "How To Say Goodbye," performed by Amy Grant. It was a very emotional closing to a bittersweet afternoon, mothers and daughters alike.

TRUE LIFE

I'm a prankster

This year's senior prank day revealed how united the senior class of 2008 has become over the past four years. On the night before senior prank day, the seniors decorated the halls of Harpeth Hall and went to a movie together to enjoy some of their last moments together as a class. The Mates of '08 pulled together to support a fellow classmate, Maddie Garrett, after the sudden loss of her father with letters, flowers, and an inspirational quotation on a poster that decorated the upper school hallway. In addition, the seniors strategically drove a mini coop onto the senior patio. Many residents of Green Hills, as well as the Harpeth Hall students, were stunned to find a sign on the corner of Estes and Hobbs Road that claimed Harpeth Hall would be accepting boys in the next school year. Several calls were made to Mrs. Horton questioning the authenticity of this sign. Most importantly, the class of 2008 handled this year's prank was with class and maturity. Many teachers and administrators expressed their reactions to the senior's actions. Mr. Wert stated, "This gesture will be remembered for years to come - the best 'senior prank' ever!" Mrs. Hill stated in an email to the seniors, "You took my breath away this morning when I saw what a wonderful thing you had done. I don't know if there will ever be a senior class as great as yours." The class of 2009 has big shoes to fill as the leaders of Harpeth Hall next year.

Upper School Awards Day marks the end of classes, intense club song competitions, and a time of recognition for hard work. Although the weather was colder than usual, this year's Awards Day was enjoyed by all. Freshmen through seniors gathered with faculty on Souby Lawn to celebrate outstanding students who were honored with a variety of awards from all academic departments and the fine arts. These awards were given to acknowledge a group of talented, commendable girls recognized for being academic geniuses, exceptional leaders, remarkable citizens, and amazing friends. Many juniors received book awards to recognize their diligent, hard work and great grades over the year. In the middle of the celebration, the spirited, highly anticipated club competition was held. The Triads wowed the crowd with their performance of "Fly Fly Fly." The Ariston gators got creative with their rendition of "We Will Chomp You," and the Angkor whales excitingly sang Rihanna's "Umbrella." But in the end the Eccowasins won the judges over with their "Hey Eccos Your So Fine" lyrics. Next, the Milestones dedications were given to Mrs. Betsey Malone and Mrs. Ophelia Paine. The traditional announcement of the greatest honors, the Lady of the Hall and her court, including fifth grade through senior class representatives were given last along with the cherished Head's Award and Director's Award, given to seniors Samantha Williams and Courtney Vick. The celebration ended with the singing of the alma mater led by the senior class on the library steps. Middle School students also received many awards and were recognized during their awards day ceremony earlier in the day in the theatre.

TRUE LIFE I've got the perfect white dress

Step Singing is a Harpeth Hall tradition that was adopted from Ward Belmont. This celebration is always held on the Sunday preceding graduation. In this celebration, the graduating senior class passes down the leadership of the school to the rising senior class. Both classes of girls honor each other by singing songs on the library steps that they have chosen at this celebration. This year the graduating senior class of 2008 chose to sing "When You Come Back Down" by Nickel Creek to the juniors, and in return the junior class sang R. Kelly's "The World's Greatest" to the seniors. Each year the graduating senior class chooses an outside speaker to talk, and this year's graduating class chose Reverend Becca Stevens. Finally, the Lady of the Hall and her court are presented and honored at this ceremony. This year's Lady of the Hall, Cate Tidwell, spoke elegantly to her class and the Harpeth Hall community during the ceremony.

Sarah Allen Ray anxiously awaits the walk across stage to receive her diploma.

TRUE LIFE

I want to be a high schooler

Everyone was relieved when the storms of May 26, 2008 held off long enough for the Class of 2012 to enjoy a beautiful Honor Day. After up to four years in the middle school, a very challenging eighth grade curriculum, and a gruelling week of exams, these girls were ready to celebrate! They were all smiles as they clutched their hard earned diplomas and gave hug after hug to classmates, friends and beaming family members.

The ceremony was lovely, with beautiful vocal perfomances by the fifth, sixth and seveth grades, not to mention the Harpeth Hall Singers and the Middle School Orchestra.

One highlight of the morning was the speech given by Lindsay Bae, who was elected by her classmates to be the eighth grade speaker. About the reality of these young girls becoming grown women, Lindsay simply said, "Life comes at you fast." Parents and student alike all enjoyed Lindsay's good humor and agreed with the praise she offered her classmates.

Another highlight came as a surprise at the end of the ceremony. Ms. Curry, along with the help and vision of four eighth graders, Tina Qian, Lindsay Bae, Cera Salman and Lucy Cohn-Still, presented Mrs. Malone with an extraordinary retirement gift: a three by five foot frame that held precisely 1000 cranes, which contained messages and drawings from each middle school student and faculty member. This was just one more example of the amazing talents and thoughtfulness of the Class of 2012.

Below top: Julia Alexander and Kelsey Albritton lead the class as they walk toward the theater in alphabetical order.

Below bottom: Katie Neal and Margaret Anne Pendleton are all smiles on this happy day.

Left: Bennett Barr walks proudly down the aisle on her last day as an eighth grader.

Above: Maddie Garrett, Lisa Howard, Taylor Witherspoon, Elizabeth Ward, Meredith Power, Sumner Morgan, Bethea Patterson, and Peyton Curley look absolutely stunning.

TRUE LIFE I'm graduating

The class of 2008 did not let the rain ruin their excitement and celebration as they processed down the aisles of the Francis Bond Davis Theatre on Monday, May 26, 2008, which was the 57th commencement ceremony at Harpeth Hall. Hundreds of family, friends, and faculty members celebrated the seniors and their success as they gathered in both the auditorium and in Morrison Gym. During the ceremony Head of School, Ann Teaff, and senior class member, Samantha Williams, spoke eloquently about the class of 2008 and their achievements. Ann Teaff remarked, "As young women in the 21st century, the possibilities for you are unlimited. Your intellect, your talent, and your will to achieve will set you apart. It is, however, your commitment to honor and integrity that will be your greatest gifts to this world." Samantha Williams fondly spoke to her classmates, "As we go our separate ways, I'm not worried about where you will all end up. You will live up to your expectations and more. You will change the world. As Dr. Seuss says, 'And you will succeed. Yes! You will indeed. Kid, you'll move mountains.'" Several academic awards were given to outstanding seniors who were at the top of the class academically. Catherine Ramsey was the recipient of the Katie Wray Valedictory Award, Mary Julia Bressman received second honors, and Mary Killian received third honors. Finally, to conclude the ceremony, ninety-two seniors joyfully accepted their high school diplomas in their beautiful, long white dresses. The class of 2008 will head off in many different directions across the country from coast to coast this fall.

Ms. Jenny Byers and Rachel McKenzie smile for a picture together.

Ashley Norman and Heba Gill hide their sadness about the rainy weather with their big smiles.

Liz Barcus is excited to finally hold her diploma.

Elizabeth Ward helps Sumner Morgan tie a pretty bow on the back of her dress before the graduation cremony.

Each graduate was given a small bouquet of pink roses to hold during the ceremony.

Macy Hughart and her mother celebrate together.

Claire Henry and Lauren Petway enjoy their last moments together as classmates.

Although you see the world different than me
Sometimes I can touch upon the wonders that you see
All the new colors and pictures you've designed
Oh yes, sweet darling
So glad you are a child of mine

You don't need direction, you know which way to go
And I don't want to hold you back, I just want to watch you grow
You're the one who taught me you don't have to look behind
Oh yes, sweet darling
So glad you are a child of mine

Nobody's gonna kill your dreams
Or tell you how to live your life
There'll always be people to make it hard for a while
But you'll change their heads when they see you smile

You are an amazing young woman with a very bright future. We are very proud of your accomplishments, but are most proud that you have stayed true to yourself! As you continue the next leg of your journey, don't be afraid to be wrong, to lose, to lead, to protect the weak, to be in the minority, to love, or to forgive. Continue to hold your values close to your heart. And, never, never give up.
Love always,
